Candidate Answers Davis on Issues of Campaign In Address In Maine

By ALBERT E. BAENZIGER
For International News Service.

AUGUSTA, Maine, Aug. 23.—General Charles G. Dawes, Republican candidate for vice-president, this afternoon at the rally here of Maine Republicans outlined his stand on the Ku Klux Klan.

That portion of his address devoted to the Klan was an answer to a challenge from William R. Pattingill, Democratic candidate for governor, and, indirectly, a reply to the Democratic presidential nominee, John W. Davis, who demanded that President Coolidge say where he stands on the Klan.

"I first desire to speak as Mr. Davis did yesterday, relative to the Klan. I agree with him that it has no proper place in this or any other campaign. I cannot agree with his inference that its discussion diverts attention from those issues the people must settle in November by their votes. It only emphasizes the greatest issue.

Not Right Away

"Let me say at once that I realize that the Klan in many localities and many people represents only an instinctive groping for leadership, moving in the interest of law enforcement, which they do not find in many cowardly politicians and officeholders. But it is not the right way to forward law enforcement.

"Let us consider for a minute what happened in the state of Oklahoma. If there could be an excuse for law-abiding citizens to band themselves together in secret organizations for law enforcement, it existed in Oklahoma, and the Klan became a powerful organization.

"What happened then? Then back stepped Governor Walton to the American flag, to which, it seems to me, he had not kept very close up to that time—and called out the militia of the state Then it was that those who had joined the Klan in the interest of law and order found themselves arrayed against their flag and the laws of Oklahoma. A situation akin to that of the Civil war ex-

Flags Fast Train As Power Line Pole Falls Across Tracks

OCEANSIDE, Aug. 23.—Several hundred persons, passengers aboard a northbound Santa Fe train, barely escaped death yesterday, it was learned today when the train was flagged and prevented from a possible wreck before it crashed into a burning pole which was carrying a high voltage of electricity.

J. B. Stratton, connected with the local branch of the San Diego Consolidated Gas and Electric company, was the hero who flagged the train near Del Mar. Service of the Western Union Telegraph company was impaired for a short while, it was learned, because the high voltage pole fell across its lines.

DARROW IN PLEA FOR LIFE TERMS

Burden of Leopold and Loeb Defense Hinges on Their 'Diseased Minds'

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
For International News Service.

CRIMINAL COURT, CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—For two hours today Clarence Darrow pleaded for mercy and life sentences for Nathan Leopold, jr., and Richard A. Loeb instead of the gallows. He pleaded in tones that could scarcely be heard ten feet away, he pleaded in tones that could be heard almost to the Chicago stockyards, but always he pleaded.

And the burden of his plea today was, as on yesterday, that the two college prodigies have diseased minds and hanging them will do no good.

Boys Took Chances

He painted the intellectual young slayers, not as the master criminals that the state calls them, but as immature boys with their schemes, diseased schemes, fool schemes, crazy schemes, idiot schemes. He showed how, instead of covering up their footsteps at every point in the Franks crime, they took terrible chances of being discovered by any chance accident or whim of fate.

It was queer, Darrow said, to have to ask for mercy—a kind of mercy that consists of only putting Loeb and Leopold away from the world for the rest of their lives—with nothing to look forward to but hospital guards and gray stone walls, month after month, day after day.

GO TO POLLS PLEA OF LEGION

Former Service Men Urging Good Citizens to Vote at Tuesday's Election

Members of Glendale Post No. 127, American Legion, at the meeting held last night in the Legion hall, 610 East Broadway, decided to urge residents of Glendale to go to the polls next Tuesday and vote in the primary election. The question of voting was brought up at the meeting by Commander Joseph A. Wilson, who talked at length on the duties of every American at election time, and urged the members to carry the message to others.

The constitution of the American Legion prohibits any member or post from participating in politics, it was pointed out by Commander Wilson, but the exercise of the right of all Americans is stressed by the Legion constitution.

Committees Named

Plans for Armistice Day, the only holiday of the year the American Legion claims as its own, will be made within a short time, it was decided at the meeting. Commander Wilson, First Vice Commander W. H. Regelin and Second Vice Commander E. W. Gilliland were named as a committee to appoint sub-committees to look after the various details.

Burt Richardson, E. W. Gilliland, W. B. Kelly and H. B. Thompson have been named captains of the four sections of the Legion unit in the Angeles Forest Fire Protective association. Mr. Thompson will also officiate at the aerial photographer and aerial lookout for the unit. Forty-five members of the post have volunteered for fire duty.

Plan Defense Day

Plans for Defense day, September 12, will be announced later, Commander Wilson said last night. The Legion will have charge of the arrangements in Glendale, it was decided some time ago. Dr. A. L. Munger was named chairman of the committee in charge of the Boy Scout troop sponsored by the post. The members will meet at the Legion hall at 6:30 o'clock Monday night and go to Covina to attend the meeting of that post.

Ernest Tucker of Community Service, led the singing last night. Mrs. Hazel Kendall Potts, pianist, and Milford C. Jackson, baritone, provided a musical program which was enjoyed by the ex-service men. The program next week will be in charge of Walter J. Horstman.

LATEST NEWS

POLICEMAN HELD FOR BURGLARIES

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23.—S. H. Millsap, former Los Angeles police officer, was a robber by night and a policeman by day, according to charges to which he entered a not guilty plea here today. Millsap is accused of taking part in several hotel robberies.

BLAME FIREBUG FOR $100,000 LOSSES

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23.—More than $100,000 was the property loss in twenty-five fires in the industrial district here for which John Henry, negro, is said to have been responsible, according to charges of officials of the fire prevention bureau. The alleged pyromaniac, captured by police, is being held for psychopathic observation.

GREEK NAVAL MUTINEERS SURRENDER

ATHENS, Aug. 23.—Greek naval mutineers under the leadership of Captain Kolialexis yielded to the government today and a government order to disarm the entire fleet was cancelled. The fleet is proceding to Phaleron. Kolialexis surrendered after Captain Hadjikiyriakos, former Greek minister of marine, had been appointed mediator.

FEEDER LINES ON AIR MAIL ASKED

Success of Service Shown as Business Grows; Other Cities Want Aid

By J. C. ROYLE
Special Correspondence of the Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—The United States air mail service between San Francisco and New York has been so successful and so advantageous to business that cities off the main transcontinental line are clamoring for "feeder" airplane lines. Seattle, Portland and Tacoma are desirous of a line which will cut into the main route somewhere in Utah. Los Angeles and San Diego also want the air service hooked up directly with them and cities in the middle and inter-mountain west have made similar requests.

The transcontinental air mail service now is on a paying basis and will be permanent. Business men on both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts have reaped such advantages that they are determined not to permit it to die.

Obviously the largest visible return produced by the service in dollars and cents is in the speeding up of bank collection items. San Francisco and New York banks benefit two days each way in making these collections. Large firms, especially, are finding the service invaluable for transmitting confidential instructions and speeding up plans and blueprints for construction projects and the like. The motion picture industry has been quick to use the service.

Aid Fruit Men

Large fruit distributors in California have notified the postoffice department that they are getting tremendous value from the service through quick transmission of inventories to distributors. These inventories are available to distributors two days before the fruit can arrive, enabling them to plan selling campaigns two days in advance.

Similar advantages are experienced in handling bills of lading for silk shipped from China and Japan. The postoffice department now has made arrangements for the transportation of mail originating in Japan over the air service route and, as a result, bills of lading for cargoes frequently exceeding $5,000,000 in value will be received two days earlier than formerly and the shippers will be paid that much sooner.

One of the odd benefits of the service has come to light in the

'BACK TO AFRICA' MOVEMENT GROWS

Claims 7,000,000 Are Now Ready to Return to Ancestral Clime

By ROBERT T. SMALL
Special correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—The Universal Negro Improvement association is holding its annual meeting in Harlem and listening once more to the stories of the promised land that lies over the seas. The "Back to Africa" movement is in full swing again and Marcus Aurelius Garvey, variously known as "president of Africa" and "commander of the Sublime Order of the Nile," has announced that no less than 7,000,000 negroes have expressed their intention of going back "home." Four million of these negroes are supposed to be in the United States. The other 3,000,000 are scattered through the West Indies, where Garvey himself hails from.

As exhibit A of the new movement, Garvey has the steamer General G. W. Goethals tied up at a dock in the Hudson river. The steamer is to be re-christened the "Booker T. Washington" and is pointed out as the flagship of the new Black Cross Navigation and Trading company. Some 5000 members of the improvement association and their friends have been inspecting the ship in the last few days, a ticket booth having been erected on the dock and fees of 50 cents each charged to the non-members.

Travel on the Booker T. Washington when it becomes that will be no cheap affair. The rates for the cabin have been fixed at $180 for each passenger. This does not daunt the leaders in the movement. This inspection of the vessel has been attended with great pomp and ceremony. "The Royal African Guards" have been on duty as well as the Universal African Legion and the African Legion band. There is one thing nice about belonging to one of Mr. Garvey's organizations. Each and every person is entitled to

WALES SAILS FOR AMERICAN VISIT

Boards Liner In Early Dawn; Trip to Cement Ties Between Countries

SOUTHAMPTON, England, Aug. 23.—The Prince of Wales sailed for New York today on the Cunard liner Berengaria for a visit which is expected to strengthen the ties of social friendship between the United States and England.

The prince, instead of coming down from London today, spent the night at the home of a friend upon the Isle of Wight, coming across the Solent this morning in a motor boat.

It was still dark when the motor boat chugged into the Southampton harbor and there was no one about when the prince boarded the liner. He went at once to his quarters in the imperial suite

LICK OBSERVATORY, MOUNT HAMILTON, Cal., Aug. 23.—Possibility that Mars' near approach to the earth may result in new and important discoveries concerning the atmosphere of the planet was indicated in an announcement made today by Dr. W. H. Wright, one of the scientists observing the planet, and who is making color screen photographs.

"I have photographed the planet by light of three different colors," Dr. Wright said in a statement today, "namely violet, yellow and extreme or infra red.

Clear Photographs

"Outstanding features of the investigation are the set of photographs made with infra red light. In these, outlines of the Martian surface are boldly delineated and are much more striking than when photographed in ordinary light or seen through a telescope.

"These photographs show a marked falling off in the brightness of the planet at the edge, an appearance which is indicative of the existence of a Martian atmosphere.

There is a possibility that the violet color photographs may have a tendency to show that the "polar caps" may be clouds on Mars' surface rather than ice.

Mars Is Habitable, Scientists Declare

LOWELL OBSERVATORY, FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., Aug. 23.—Vegetation exists on the planet Mars without a doubt and the planet is clearly habitable, although no proof may be advanced that animal life of any order is present, American scientists here declared today, after extensive observations during the night. "Close-up" photographs of the planet, regarded as highly important in Martian studies, were taken by the astronomers.

Similar to World

Climatic and atmospheric conditions on the distant planet are very similar to those on the earth, the astronomers said. Day and night, clouds, rains, storm, snows and certain types of vegetation exist, they said, beyond doubt.

Early this morning the planet appeared exceptionally clear, it was stated. A haze or vapor or steam appeared at the lower rim but the remainder was very distinct. Much of the surface appeared, as the planet completed its earthward swing, bringing it unusually close to the earth, to resemble a desert, but sections showing green and blue in color were plainly observed.

With succeeding seasons, the scientists said, the colors change, indicating vegetation.

Summers Longer

The snow cap at the south pole of the planet has now receded to about 15 degrees, which is less than the ice fields at the earth's poles ever reach. This, the astronomers said, was explained by the fact that the Martian spring and summer season is very much longer, their year being 686 of our days in length.

Water from the melting snow is supposed to produce vegetation in temperate sections which appear to be practically devoid of rain.

None of the scientists here, Professors Slipper, Lampland or Dr. Coblentz, would discuss possibility of signaling Mars. They appeared to scorn even the idea of such a feat.

Observations completed this week were especially instructive, it was said, but even more important visual observations and photographic studies may be made some time during the next few days, they declared.

The photographs taken last night were considered important in backing up claims that vegetation exists on Mars.

Scientists' Efforts To Pick Up Mars' Signals Are Failure

LONDON, Aug. 23.—Efforts of British scientists to pick up communications from Mars—if there were any—proved unsuccessful, it was officially stated today.

At Dulwich, Professor Norman Edwards "listened in with a 24-valve receiving set. He picked up long harsh dots at regular intervals in groups of five, four and three, but he does not believe they were signals from a neighboring planet. The dots had a wave length of 30,000 meters.

The Royal observatory at Greenwich announced observations of Mars, but nothing unusual was noted.

British scientists gave the impression that nothing new regarding the planet and life there had been gained by the recent visit of Mars.

TEXAS ELECTION DIVIDED BY KLAN

Sunbonnet vs. Hood Today In Democratic Primary as Race Nears End

By JAMES R. RECORD
Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924.

FORT WORTH, Texas, Aug. 23.—After today the Democratic donkey in Texas will wear either a sunbonnet or a hood. A sunbonnet, if Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson is nominated for governor by the anti-klan faction. A hood, if Judge Felix D. Robertson, the Ku Glux Klan choice, is successful.

The issue in all races, governor to comptroller, is clear cut—the klan being the dividing line. Efforts to divert the attention of the public to other issues have failed and each side is staking its all on this primary, the second one in four weeks. The first primary failed to develop a majority for any candidate in any of the seven important state races.

Young Dan Moody, the brilliant anti-klan prosecutor, who has sent to the penitentiary a number of floggers wearing the hood and sheet, missed his majority by a few hundred votes only and consequently he is expected to run away from his klan opponent in the race for attorney general. However, his is the only race where the result is not in some doubt, though anti-klanners are expected to win in the majority.

In the first primary 720,000

FOG DELAYS HUNT FOR MISSING FLYER

U. S. Cruisers and Planes Comb Ocean Wastes to Find Lieut. Locatelli

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service.

ON BOARD U. S. CRUISER RICHMOND, Aug. 23.—(BY Wireless)—Fog today hampered the search for Lieutenant "Tony" Locatelli, Italian aviator, lost while accompanying Lowell Smith and Lieutenant Erik Nelson on their hop from Reykjavik to Frederiksdal, Greenland.

Airplanes sent out from American cruisers off Cape Farewell and Angmagsalik were forced to return. The Danish steamship Falk is aiding.

Locatelli has been missing since mid-day, Thursday. He may have landed on some fjord and is being cared for by friendly Eskimos.

Storms Threaten

Smith and Nelson are anxious to get away from Indian Harbor, Labrador, before autumnal storms set in. Once on the mainland of the American continent they believe that the rest of their 27,000-mile journey will be easy.

A storm is forecast for tomorrow and these flyers fear it will be a forerunner of continuous bad weather.

Fog Blanket Halts Search for Locatelli

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—American cruisers and smaller craft are combing the waters in the vicinity of Frederiksdal for Lieutenant Locatelli, the Italian round-the-world flyer who was lost while accompanying the American airmen from Iceland to Greenland, said a dispatch at Cape Farewell.

The message indicated that Lieutenants Smith and Nelson might delay their hop-off from Greenland to Labrador to assist in the search for Lacatelli.

Admiral Magruder wirelessed from the cruiser Richmond, which he commands, that a dense fog had caused the search for Locatelli to be stopped this morning, but that it was to be continued as soon as the fog lifted.

Public To Hear Politics Discussed By Candidates Through Medium of Radio

By O. L. SCOTT
Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—The public this year is not only ready, but anxious to take its politics out of the air. Doubting Thomases no longer need doubt that radio audiences revel in political speeches. Candidates are listened to and appreciated, even to the complete exclusion of entertainment features tinged with jazz.

So much the Chicago Daily News' radio station has established by the first survey yet made to determine what taste exists in politics. Its findings have just been presented to President Coolidge, who was surprised and delighted to learn of the widespread interest of radio fans in political broadcasting.

Help to Candidates

This should be encouraging to the candidates who will be unable to meet personally the millions of voters who want to get that intimate touch, a heart-to-heart political talk gives. Just such contact comes from the radio, its audience says.

The radio book prepared for President Coolidge from responses elicited by his acceptance address showed returns to this one station from Montevideo, Cal.; Portsmouth, Maine; Jacksonville, Fla., and Edmonton, Canada. A nation listened to the address—and it is a similar story told by the response to the address of John W. Davis, and those of Charles W. Bryan and Charles G. Dawes, the vice-presidential candidates..

Pass Up Music

Those who argued that people are interested only in musical entertainment and bedtime stories missed their guess. Listeners who express themselves show rather that the politicians, not the lighter entertainment, are most interesting.

The president "gets" his hearers with a natural Yankee twang that seems to take with listeners from one end of the country to the other. John W. Davis has an especially well adapted radio voice, the audience advises, and his running mate, Bryan, also gets his stuff over effectively.

New Campaign Plans

Charley Dawes offers the peculiar delivery of a radio candidate. His quick, snappy run-together gives rather a queer twist through the head phones. There was scarcely enough attention paid to radio effects by the candidate in his first radio speech, but changes are expected.

With all the candidates taking their turn at microphones it won't be long before the six million radio sets in the country will have become accustomed to politics. They are the new political instruments of this campaign—all tried and proved effective in carrying personal messages from the candidate to the voter on a scale hitherto impossible.

One Killed, Two Hurt In Street Car Crash

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 23.—A man believed to be Charles E. Hockhurst was killed and Otto H. Wilson, conductor, and W. H. Graham, motorman, seriously injured when a Market Street Railway company street car early today got out of control on Fulton street and, after leaping from the rails, demolished a soft drink parlor at 49th avenue.

A fourth man in the car was uninjured. The dead man was pinned between the car and the walls of the building into which the car was hurled. Firemen were called to remove the body which was badly mangled. Wilson and Graham were rushed to hospitals where it was said their condition was grave.

Re-discount Rate Cut Is Announced By Reserve Banks

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 23.—A reduction of one-half per cent in the rediscount rate of the federal reserve bank of San Francisco was announced today by John Perrin, chairman of the board.

With the approval of the federal reserve board, the directors of the San Francisco bank reduced the rediscount rate from four per cent to three and one-half per cent, effective August 25. The four per cent rate had been in effect since June 10, when it was reduced from four and one-half per cent.

Georgia Official Holds All Marriages in State Since August 18 Illegal

By MILLARD FERGUSON
Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 23.—Newly-weds all over Georgia are begging Attorney General George M. Napier to come home and say it isn't so. With the attorney general away from his office on a vacation, S. G. McLendon, secretary of state, contends that every marriage solemnized in Georgia since August 18 is illegal.

He bases his opinion on the law recently passed by the legislature requiring applications for marriage licenses to be posted five days before the license is issued. He holds that this law went into effect on August 18, and that every marriage performed since then has been illegal because the license applications were not posted the required five days.

Governor Silent

With the attorney general absent, there is nobody to gainsay the secretary of state, though Ordinary Thomas Jefferies of Fulton county is doing the best he can by his late clients in the business of license buying. He declares that any matrimonial knots tied in the last three days are legally binding.

Governor Clifford Walker has not expressed his opinion as to whether several score of honeymoon couples in Georgia are not really married at all, and superior court judges who were questioned today sidetracked it as a ticklish question. But Secretary of State McLendon has no doubts on the matter. He not only says that the persons married during the last few days in Georgia might as well have been reciting Mother Goose rhymes, for all the holy vows meant in the eyes of the law, but that the same very likely will apply to marriages for some days to come. His advice to all engaged couples is "don't."

Advises Delay

He urges them to wait several weeks before they marry, unless they want to find themselves going through an illegal ceremony. The law was passed to put a stop to "kindergarten" marriages, but it takes in old and young alike.

The most pretentious wedding that has taken place here since the marriage of Lucy Candler, granddaughter of the Coca Cola king, is illegal, if Mr. McLendon is right. It was that of Miss Blanche Carter Devine to Harold Fries Evans of Rosemont, Pa., on Monday night in the ballroom of the Biltmore hotel with two thousand guests present.

The end of the ballroom was turned into an altar with large white candelabra on each side holding burning tapers and strung about the room were as many orchids as Lucy Candler had at her wedding. The bride wore a crown of pearls and her wedding dress cost a fortune, but Mr. McLendon says that the pearls will not make any difference.

Red Disorders Halt Study of Dawes Plan

BERLIN, Aug. 23.—Communist disorders again broke out today in the Reichstag, hindering debate of the Dawes reparations plan and the London settlement.

Chancellor Marx made a speech in support of German ratification, but a great part of it could not be heard for the continuous shouting of the reds.

Historical March Marks Featured Film Coming To Gateway Theatre

A magnificent epic of the early west is James Cruze's Paramount production, "The Covered Wagon," which will be the feature at the Gateway theatre for three days, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, August 24, 25 and 26. This is a picturization of Emerson Hough's new novel of the same name, and it is said to be one of the greatest photoplays ever seen on the screen.

The features embraced in this story are many and varied and include among others, the start of 350 covered wagons from Westport Landing (now Kansas City), in 1848. The terrors of fording freshet rivers, prairie fires, and the like, are depicted with great realism. A buffalo hunt is one of the most exciting scenes. Old Fort Bridger with a night attack and fight by day with Indians, are shown. The dividing of the trails to Oregon and California at old Fort Hall, a touch of the gold fever in California, magnificent mountain shots and a culmination of the romance with the establishment of one of the first homesteads in Oregon—these are all incidents in a picture that bristles with big scenes.

Such historical characters as Kit Carson, Jim Bridger and Bill Jackson, scouts and typical western characters, are portrayed in the Paramount screen version of the novel, which is conceded to be one of the most notable literary achievements of the present decade.

The various roles are in the hands of well-known screen players. The leading man is J. Warren Kerrigan, and the leading woman is Lois Wilson. Alan Hale is the villain. Others in the cast include Tully Marshall, Ethel Wales, Charles Ogle and John Fox. Jack Cunningham adapted the novel to the screen.

Farewell for Prince Of Wales Falls Flat

LONDON, Aug. 23.—Hundreds of disappointed Londoners went to Waterloo railway station this morning to take part in a farewell demonstration for the Prince of Wales, only to find he had left London yesterday.

The prince motored to the coast, spending the night at a friend's home. He did this to forestall ceremony.

Sailing at the asme time as the prince, but from Liverpool instead of Southampton, was Malcolm Macdonald, son of the British premier. No ceremonies attended the departure of young Macdonald. He will represent Oxford university in intercollegiate debates and hopes to get a job as reporter upon an American newspaper for a while.

TREND TO SMALL TOWNS IS SHOWN

Increase In Property Values In Large Cities Is Important Factor

By J. C. ROYLE
Special correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—White collar workers, as well as soft shirt men who come to the large cities to work nowadays are likely to be compelled to turn around and go back to the smaller towns. There is a distinct movement under way toward a closer contact between the producing and administrative and distributing ends of many basic industries, as well as a desire to concentrate activities of each close to the center of its markets.

This trend in policy has been strengthened by a number of factors. One of these has been the rapid increase of property values from New York to the middle west and sales departments recently was able to buy property and build and rents in the larger cities. A concern which moved its executive its offices there at a cost equal to about one year's rent for its former quarters in this city. Cost of living for employes also has been taken into deep consideration in an effort to avoid a higher scale of wages without lowering personnel efficiency or standards of living among the workers.

Cheap Power Sought

Moves of industrial plants and factories to smaller centers has been inspired by similar motives and by the search for cheap and dependable power facilities. Many sites have been changed also by the transformation in the foreign-born population engaged in certain industries.

The piano industry, for many years, was entirely in the hands of German workmen. The piano workers, wood carvers, picture frame makers and pipe makers formerly were of German origin. Their places now have been taken to a large extent by Russians, Poles and Italians. The manufacture of canes and umbrellas, formerly in the hands of the Irish, has now passed to Jews of foreign birth. Many of these industries have moved in order to get closer to a suitable supply of labor.

Truck transportation also has enabled manufacturers to utilize sites where land values are cheaper and where the cost of storage facilities for raw materials and finished stocks are not so high.

Workers Fight Moves

These moves to smaller towns have been vigorously opposed by many of the employes. "The chief disadvantage is the difficulty of attracting skilled labor," says a finding of the committee on the regional plan of New York and environs. "Workers and their families do not want to leave behind them the shopping and amusement advantages of Manhattan and the foreign colonies where many find their chief social life."

Many who have moved from Broadway to Main street, however, are thoroughly satisfied with the change. Officials of the Indian Refining company, which moved its executive and sales force of 300 people from New York to Lawrenceville, Illinois, where its refineries are located, declare the policy marks a new movement for the redistribution of the working population as well as an improvement in efficiency in selling and manufacturing, a cut in overhead and a saving of time in communication.

MONTROSE NOTES

MONTROSE, Aug. 23.—The board of directors of the Montrose Chamber of Commerce will meet on Thursday night, August 28, to plan for the coming year's work. James Brown, retiring president of the chamber, is being urged by members and friends to run again for office. The advisability of adding two new directors to the board will be discussed.

For the first time in its history Montrose is to have its own polling place. On Tuesday those residing in Montrose will vote at the polls established in Evans' garage on the southeast corner of Honolulu and Ocean View avenue. Mrs. John Martin will be the judge, with Theo Belanger, Mrs. A. G. Cochrane, Mrs. W. Merritt and W. Norwood serving.

The members of the Verdugo Hills post of the American Legion enjoyed a visit from members of the N. P. Banks post of the G. A. R. in Glendale, whose chaplain, C. R. Norton, officiated during the evening. Adjutant E. E. MacWain and C. H. Clark talked. Mr. MacWain reported on the state convention held by the California Legion recently. The Montrose Boy Scouts were present with their troop leader, R. McMurdy, who received the colors presented by Verdugo Hills post to this group of the Scouts they are sponsoring. Next meeting, to be held on September 3, is to be at the home of Adjutant A. E. Baron.

The following is the list of the Montrose teachers for the coming school year: Mrs. Ida Boyer, first grade; Mrs. Edithe Greenberg, second; Mrs. Esther Eyre, third; Miss Ruth Auxier, fourth and fifth. The unfinished room in the Montrose schoolhouse is about completed and will be used as a classroom.

Mrs. W. F. Brown is rejoicing over the news of a new grandson who arrived in the Brown family in Kuling, China. Harry Esmond, as the youngster is called, is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Chauncy F. Brown.

A number of new divisions have been added to the club's work for the coming year, principal of which are, perhaps, the citizenship and parliamentary sections.

A Clean-Living City
Every Knock a Boost
Davis Raises Issue
Leaving Mars Alone

By Gil A. Cowan

Sensations pile upon sensations as the days roll by. A power plant was dynamited late yesterday in the Lomita district. A Bell groceryman's headless body was found near Whittier, it being presumed he was murdered.

On the witness stand Harry Dunlap boasts of his career of crime; in the cell Kid McCoy tells of having wooed and won more women than Nat Goodwin; the Leopold and Loeb pair giggle at the crowd of silly women who stage a riot to get into their Chicago trial court room as Clarence Darrow makes judge and attaches of the court weep with his heart-rending appeal for two murderers; and that isn't all of the thrill, if you please to so call it, in the news of the last twenty-four hours.

Crime, morbidity and more of it. How wonderful it is to sit here in Glendale and see a peaceful community; to walk among friends on the street, to sleep with calm repose and assurance, to drink in deep draughts of God's fresh air from the mountains and sea and to think of your neighbors as clean-living, honest people?

Yet we must have our excitement and Murphy's Comedians provide that here. A tempest in a teapot has been stirred by their coming to Southern California, it is said, and the fact that they are playing in Glendale vicinity is a mere incident.

For ten years or more Horace Murphy has been playing stock in California. He is one of the greatest personalities of the speaking stage and known to every trouper by reputation, at least, from coast to coast. And all because of his good humor which is an asset to any theatre man.

Similar experiences to the one now confronting the Murphy company are known to the writer as having occurred in El Centro over eight years ago. Also in Riverside. And more recently in Sacramento.

Because of opposition advertising his show, Murphy and his associates have made money. They have thrived on controversy. Certainly the public enjoys it, for it reveals traits of character in officials and others that you might not know were there.

Anyway, the writer has it on best authority that the general manager of certain show interests in the Southland a year ago warned Murphy's Comedians he would spend $100,000 to keep him from playing in Southern California. It looks as though he will have to do so or fail.

But one arises to inquire just where this $100,000 is beng spent.

Yesterday the writer complained of no argument in the national campaign worthy of note. And Mr. Davis of the Democrats proceeds to hop upon the platform in Seagirt, N. J., and raise the very issue which nearly wrecked the party convention in New York.

Yes sirree. Mr. Davis, like La Follette, assailed the Ku Klux Klan. And if President Coolidge does likewise it may be necessary for that secret order to vote the Prohibition ticket. All of which must be taken with a grain of salt.

One thing you will not read in comment. This writer knows nothing about Mars and confesses it. Therefore, nothing will be written on the subject except that those who have peered through the looking-glass (a mighty good term for a telescope) declare they are still seeing red. No need of looking to Mars to see red, folks. Just try your hand at editing a newspaper for a few days.

That's all.

AT LA CRESCENTA

LA CRESCENTA, Aug. 23.—The following teachers have been appointed to teach in the La Crescenta school for the coming school year: Miss Alma De Berry, first grade; Miss Essie Flink, second; Mrs. Sarah Kappel, third; Miss Edith Rhea, fourth; Miss Louise Allen, Miss Agnes Rasmussen, Miss Isabel King, Miss Florence Ross, upper grade departmental work. A. Blanford, who served as principal last year, will not teach this year, but act as supervisor.

The end of the corridor is being fitted up as a library and the old library room will now be used as the office of the supervisor.

On Tuesday next every one is urged to go to the polls to vote. To make it easier for the increased number of voters in the valley to vote quickly, there have been added two new voting precincts in this end of the valley. Number 1 is at the oil staton on the northeast corner of Los Angeles and Michigan avenues; No. 2 at La Crescenta schoolhouse, and No. 3 in the store, 150 East Michigan avenue.

Mrs. Mark Collins is entertaining as her house guest, her niece, Mrs. Mary Townsend Hobson of Roseville, Cal. Mrs. Hobson is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music in instrumental and vocal work.

Mrs. Mary B. Darrow has returned from a trip into the Ventura Hills and Santa Barbara.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen and son John are spending the remainder of the vacation period at Wheeler Hot Springs.

Mrs. Charles Turck, president-elect of the La Crescenta Valley Women's club, is planning the first year book this organization has had. The book will be in gold and blue, the club colors, and will contain the list of honorary members and the full list of members in good standing, of whom there are 113 to date.

BUILDING TOTALS PASS LAST YEAR

Excess of $133,000,000 Is Shown In First Five Months Over 1923

The first five months of 1924 produced a greater total of building permits throughout the United States than the same period of 1923, according to a survey of the volume of national construction just completed by the statistical department of the United Bonded Contractors' Association of Southern California.

The volume of construction as represented by building permits issued in the principal cities of the nation for the first half of the present year, according to the association's survey was $1,242,000,000. This sum included all classes of structures and, in comparison with the volume of permits issued during the same period of the previous year, it was in excess to the extent of approximately $133,000,000.

Highest in March

The survey also shows that the largest amount of building since 1913 was recorded throughout the country in March of this year, when the total number of building permits issued was $313,000,000.

The nearest approach to this tremendous volume of construction work, according to the survey, was reached in March of the previous year, when the volume of permits represented $286,000,000. March of 1922 was also a prosperous month for the building industry, as construction permits totaled $250,000,000.

A very remarkable advance in construction activities throughout the nation, the survey indicates, occurred between January, 1921 and the early months of the following year. Building permits for the first month of the former year were only $38,000,000 over the entire country, but by February of the latter year had climbed to more than $115,000,000.

BOND ELECTION'S DATE IS CHOSEN

Voters to Decide on Issue Of $1,705,973 for Ten Civic Projects

Notices were sent out yesterday afternoon calling for election of officers to serve in the twenty precincts that have been formed for the forthcoming special election to be held for the purpose of voting $1,705,973 for municipal improvements, under the ten recommendations of the Citizens' Bond committee, states Ray L. Morrow, Glendale city attorney.

The date for this election is set for September 30, in an ordinance that will be submitted to the City Council at the session of Wednesday or Thursday of next week, he states. There are thirty-eight precincts in Glendale, Mr. Morrow explains, but for the purposes of this special election they have been combined into twenty.

Two-Thirds Vote

In order for these bonds to carry they will require a two-thirds majority of the votes cast. The committee therefore urges upon the registered voters who believe that such an issue is needed at this time to turn out at the polls in force. Following is a tabulation of the ten recommendations:

Additional fire department apparatus and buildings	$ 60,000
Fire alarm system	63,429
Police alarm system	36,294
Harvard High school civic center	650,000
Verdugo wash bridges	12,750
Water supply improvement	550,000
Additional water land, thirty-three acres	126,000
City park in Rossmoyne, thirty-five acres	122,500
Park site, south end	35,000
Garbage disposal plant	50,000

When these recommendations were submitted by the Citizens' Bond committee, under the signatures of D. H. Smith, chairman, and Mrs. Frank C. Weller, secretary, they were accompanied by the following statement:

Vital Improvements

"In submitting these recommendations the majority of the committee feels that these improvements are vital and necessary to the general welfare of the city; and in view of this fact we would further recommend that the same be placed on the ballot at a special election to be held as soon as the law will permit."

Symphony Orchestra Concert Is Success

An audience of between 700 and 800 turned out last night to hear the open-air concert given by the Glendale Symphony orchestra at Patterson Avenue park, and the various numbers on the program were warmly applauded by those who filled the seats in the park and who occupied many of the cars that were stationed around the park. The community singing, led by J. Arthur Myers, the director, was one of the most popular numbers on the program.

ECONOMY SUPPORT RICHARDSON ASKS

Frank C. Weller, Who Seeks Re-election, Among Those Favored by Governor

Governor Richardson in a statement today urged the people of the state to support candidates for the legislature who stood for the economy budget and warned them that the election of spendthrifts would mean an ad valorem tax of many millions of dollars on the householders and property owners of the state.

The governor said: "Every voter has an interest in an economic and efficient state government. Every dollar saved in the administration of the state government will be found, in the final analysis, to add just that much to the productive and employing power of the state. The corporations do not pay the state taxes. They are paid by the people. Every cent of tax piled on corporate franchises is taken out of the people in rates and charges.

Should Be Rewarded

"At the last session many members voted consistently to uphold the budget amendment and they greatly aided me in putting through legislation designed to reduce previous extravagance. Their action prevented the levy of an ad valorem tax of $14,000,000 upon the householders and property owners of the state. These legislators represented the best interests of the state and should be rewarded for their faithfulness."

The governor mentioned no names, but in this district the economy candidate is Frank C. Weller of Glendale, who is seeking re-election to the assembly.

Invite C. C. President To Harbor Banquet

An invitation was received this morning by the Glendale Chamber of Commerce from the Long Beach Harbor committee of Two Thousand and the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce, asking the president of the organization to attend the harbor inaugural banquet at the Municipal auditorium in Long Beach on Tuesday, August 26, at 7 o'clock.

CYCLIST HIT BY AUTO

James Edmonds of 327 West Ivy street was struck by an automobile driven by Victor C. Studebaker of Los Angeles, at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, as he was riding home from work on a bicycle. The accident occurred at the corner of Brand boulevard and Broadway. The bicycle was damaged, but Mr. Edmonds was not seriously injured, according to a report filed at police headquarters.

Tests have been made that show that human life can be sustained at 7½ miles altitude.

WOMEN ATHLETES EXTEND CHARTER

Club's Popularity Shown by Rush of Applicants For Membership

That there was a demand among Glendale women for an athletic organization is proven by the success featuring the organization of the Glendale Women's Athletic club, which met yesterday in Patterson Avenue park to find it necessary to extend the charter membership to sixty in order to receive all women desirous of joining. Membership in the club will now be by application.

At the meeting plans were discussed for the formation of gymnasium classes in connection with the night school at the Harvard High school. One class of forty has already been organized. Various sections will be formed in the club to offer work along the different lines of athletics.

Board Members

Dr. Harriet Farnham and Mrs. Michael were elected new members of the board of directors. The board, which also includes Mrs. J. H. Toal, president; Mrs. E. S. Dodds, vice president; Mrs. C. M. Conkling, secretary, and Mrs. L. L. Craven, treasurer, is to meet at 10 o'clock Monday morning at Mrs. Toal's home, 367 West Colorado street. At that time further plans for club activities will be made.

Yesterday afternoon the club members took physical examinations with Dr. Russell Farnham and Dr. C. M. Conkling.

The next club meeting will be Tuesday afternoon in Patterson Avenue park. All are to wear either gymnasium suits or bathing suits. Setting up exercises will be given, followed by a swim in the park pool.

Girl Scouts Present Camp Burlesque Show

Another report has been received by The Glendale Evening News from the Girl Scouts' camp at Hollywood Beach, near Oxnard, telling of the continued delights of the camp life.

The various stunts presented each night at the campfire gathering are proving most original and entertaining, according to Mrs. W. R. Wichert, secretary of the Girl Scout council.

She writes, "Wednesday's campfire stunt was a fashion show, a burlesque, broadcasted by Peggie Hamilton, now in Paris, to the Glendale Girl Scouts, telling them the proper clothing for camp and how to wear it.

"Each stunt grows in effort and originality. There is no slow time except quiet hour, and even that is welcome to some.

"The poetical log for Thursday was written by Troop 4.

"Friday has been foggy, but warm, the bathing better, the tide not so high. Everybody is happy, well fed, and no one ill, with the exception of a few stubbed toes, and two with hoarseness from loud singing combined with fog."

Mrs. Frank Dow Hurt In Auto Collision

Mrs. Frank Dow of 1229 East Lexington drive was badly shaken up at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the automobile driven by Mrs. L. W. Sinclair of 1226 East Lexington drive was struck at the Glenwood road entrance to the Grand View cemetery by a car driven by Clarence Nace. In the car with Mrs. Dow and Mrs. Sinclair was Mrs. J. W. Pendergast from Alameda, a guest of Mrs. Dow. She was also shaken up.

Mrs. Dow was examined at the office of Dr. T. C. Young, 620 East Broadway, and an X-ray taken, but no bones were broken, the plate showed.

Public Is Invited to Oakmont Club Concert

The public has been invited to attend the concert Sunday night at the Oakmont Country club by the Glendale Community Symphony orchestra, directed by J. Arthur Myers.

Preliminary to the concert the musicians will be dinner guests at the clubhouse. The concert will begin at 8 o'clock.

Included in the program will be "Andante" from "Unfinished Symphony" (Schubert); "March and Procession of Bacchus" (Deleber); overture, "Stradella"; "Henry Eighth Dances" (German); violin solo, "Concerto No. 9" (De Beriot) by Adolph Lowinsky.

Sugar Firm Purchases Large Tract of Land

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 23.—A deal recently closed by the American Beet Sugar company for the purchase of between 5000 and 6000 acres of land here is said to be the most important transaction in Santa Barbara since the building of the Oxnard sugar factory twenty-six years ago.

REV. O. O. BERNSTEIN, the new president of the Southern California conference of the Seventh Day Adventists, has arrived to assume his duties. He will also be president of the managing board of the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital.

POST AND CORPS PLAN FOR CAMP

Veterans of G. A. R. Discuss Business at All-Day Meeting Friday

A feature of the all-day meeting of the W. R. C. and G. A. R. held yesterday at the G. A. R. hall on South Glendale avenue was the noon dinner prepared and served by the members of the local post. Comrade Robert Taylor was the chairman of the dinner committee. Over 150 members of the post and corps were served.

During the morning hours the G. A. R. members held a short business meeting.

After dinner an enjoyable program was presented by Mr. and Mrs. E. Conner. They sang a southern melody, "All Over God's Heaven"; "Do You Think I'll Make a Soldier?"; "Whispering Hope" and Mr. Conner gave a humorous monologue and vocal selection, "The Old Flag Never Touched the Ground."

Plan For Encampment

Rev. R. W. Mottern gave an interesting impromptu talk and Comrade Rhodes of Ohio also gave a short talk. At the close of the program the W. R. C. held a short business meeting, with the president, Mrs. Mary Bennett, in charge. At this time two candidates for membership were initiated and applications for two new members were read.

Announcement was made relative to the annual encampment of the W. R. C. and G. A. R. to be held September 2 to 12 at Santa Monica. It is expected a large delegation from the local organizations will be in attendance.

Homecrafts Company Consolidates Office

The Homecrafts corporation has consolidated its organization at 416-18 East Colorado street. The branch formerly at 300 South Brand boulevard has been discontinued.

"Centralizing our forces will enable us to render the best possible service in all departments. The general organization now includes the real estate department, insurance and rentals, architectural, drafting and engineering department, quantity survey, estimating and general offices of the corporation.

"Permit for a $7500 residence at 938 East Mountain street and for a $11,000 residence at 1243 North Rossmoyne avenue, recently taken out by our corporation, are now in course of construction. Other permits will be issued in rapid order to conform with the building program of the corporation to improve its extensive buildings with the highest type construction and architectural design," said D. C. Casselman, manager of the real estate department.

Steamer Co. Head Visits Wreck Scene

SANTA MARIA, Aug. 23.—Major James Ralph, Jr., head of the Rolph-Hines company, Pacific coast agents of the Union Steamship company, came here from San Francisco recently to visit the scene of the wreck that left the company's tanker Orowniti fast on the reef. Red Stack tugs from San Francisco have cables to the wreck, and are exerting all their power when the tide is high to pull the vessel into deep water.

GRADUATES HEAR PASTOR'S SERMON

Adventist Church Thronged When Baccalaureate Address Is Given

"Sincerity, Sacrifice and Service," the motto of the 1924 graduating class from the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital, was eloquently praised this morning by Pastor Philip Knox of Long Beach, who gave the baccalaureate sermon at the Seventh Day Adventist church on North Isabel street.

Every available seat in the church auditorium and annexes was taken long before the hour for the processional march of the institution staff and senior and junior classes.

Mrs. Charles F. Swartzfager, organist, and A. Belle Johnson, pianist, played the march, during which the procession filed into the church. Leading the processional were the junior nurses, who filed down either aisle and stood facing the center of the church, while the institution staff, followed by the fourteen graduates, marched to their seats on the platform.

Musical Numbers

The only hymn sung was "Ready to Do His Will." Later, Dr. L. L. Jones, C. H. Jones, Dr. C. A. Brandstater, Dr. M. A. Farnsworth sang an arrangement of "Nearer, My God, to Thee," "The Wireless S O. S. (Save Our Soul) (Fillmore).

Pastor R. W. Parmele of the Glendale church gave the invocation, which was later followed by a stirring address by Mr. Knox.

Reading the scripture, "And all this assembly shall know the Lord saveth not with swords and spears, for the battle is the Lord's," Mr. Knox stated that today is marked for him by three events: First, the graduation of the first class from the new Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital; second, by his birthday, and third, by the proximity of the planet Mars to the earth.

Passion For Souls

In concluding he stressed the passion for souls and made an earnest plea for the transformation and perfection of human character.

The final musical number was a flute duet, selected, by Lyle Spellman and Harvey Lashier.

C. E. Kimlin, formerly business manager of the sanitarium and hospital, pronounced the benediction.

Three Families Come To Make Home Here

Three families now stopping at the Glengary hotel, corner of South Brand boulevard and Maple street, plan to make Glendale their permanent home, according to Alex A. Kober, proprietor.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fasselman and six children, with Mr. Fasselman's sister, Miss Rose Fasselman, are here from Waverly, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Reeve and two children are here from Lone Elm, Kan., and Dr. and Mrs. N. A. Varey and two children are here from Grand Rapids, Mich. All three families have expressed themselves as delighted with Glendale, and are looking around for home and business locations, according to Mr. Kober.

In anticipation of a bigger fall and winter season than the Glengary hotel has yet enjoyed, Mr. Kober is installing additional bathtubs, and is adding fire escapes. It is his desire to cater to tourists with families, he states, and to this end he is striving to create a homelike atmosphere at the hotel.

'Animals' Mistreated By Mercy Marchers

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 23.—"Dumb" animals predominated among the casualties in the Spanish fiesta line of march here recently. Two horses were horribly mangled, a rabbit was smashed and a frog suffered a dislocated jaw during the procession. The rabbit and frog incurred their injuries during a fight while the parade was under way. Many horses broke their legs and riders fell to the pavement. The animals, however were made of papier mache and were used in stunts in the fiesta.

Twenty-five Trucks Haul Movie Material

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 23.—Twenty-five trucks lumbered through the streets here recently carrying more than 150,000 feet of lumber from the harbor docks, bound for Universal City, where the boards will be used in constructing sets for the "Phantom of the Opera," the next Universal super-picture.

SCREEN STARS WED

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23.—Dustin Farnum, hero of western roles on stage and screen, and Miss Winifred Kingston, Hollywood beauty and motion picture actress, obtained a marriage license today and will be married tomorrow.

Soviets Spending Millions to Wreck America, Is Charge

OCEANSIDE, Aug. 23.—The Russian soviet government is spending more than a million dollars weekly in this country carrying on propaganda to overthrow the American government, Baroness Otilie De Ropp, of Glendale, Russian noblewoman, declared in a fiery address here last night at the woman's club house. Her address was given under auspices of the local Rotary club.

"No God, no flag, no country, is being introduced into our schools in Russia," the woman declared.

Baroness De Ropp sounded a general warning to all Americans to be on their guard against red propaganda.

10,000,000TH FORD PASSES THROUGH

Hundreds of Cars In Escort As Cross-Country Auto Nears Trip's End

The ten millionth Ford car, that has been making its way across the country from New York to San Francisco, over the Lincoln highway, reached Glendale this morning and headed a procession of decorated automobiles that numbered up in the hundreds as it passed through the city, coming along West Broadway, south on Brand boulevard to Los Feliz, thence to Western avenue, and on through the principal streets of Los Angeles to the Ford plant.

On its passage through Glendale the procession was led by Jesse E. Smith, local dealer, who assumed the position of grand marshal at San Fernando, piloting the ten millionth car and those cars entered by other dealers in this territory to the end of the journey in Los Angeles. Billy Lord, juvenile motion picture star, also had a prominent place in the procession. J. G. Caddell, the other Glendale dealer, was also represented in the parade.

Heading the procession was a detachment of motorcycle officers and a band, and every one of the hundreds of cars went through Glendale with the driver's thumb on the signal button, calling attention to the fact that the ten millionth Ford was here, to say nothing of all its close relations.

La Follette Backers Lay Campaign Plans

A meeting of the La Follette-for-President club was held last night at 133 North Glendale avenue. The meeting was a get-together and get-acquainted affair so that the members could be placed on the committees and on boards where they could do the best and most effective work.

The resignation of H. C. Wendt as secretary was accepted and Mrs. Marguerite Wood Kessler was unanimously elected to fill the place. A committee on committees, consisting of nine members, was elected.

The candidacy of Lewis Head of Pasadena for congress was indorsed. Treasurer Nichols reported $8.40 in the treasury. Short addresses were made by J. C. Belding, Mrs. V. B. Chapman, S. Stewart, F. A. Paugh, A. B. Curtis, Mrs. M. W. Kessler, H. H. Wheeler. A resolution inviting the general public to join the club and take an active part in the campaign was passed.

Launch New Probe In Woman's Death at Park

LONG BEACH, Aug. 23.—Authorities here today launched a new investigation of the death of Sadie Kessler Jordan, in connection with which her husband, John A. Jordan, is held in jail. Mrs. Jordan was reported as having fallen down a cliff in Rainier national park, Washington, sustaining injuries which caused her death, but the authorities asserted this explanation is not satisfactory. Bigamy charges against Jordan have been dismissed.

PROBE LOMITA BLAST

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23.—Authorities here today were investigating the dynamiting of the power plant and warehouse of the Hollingsworth company between Lomita and Los Angeles harbor. The building was almost completely wrecked last night in a mysterious blast.

NURSES WILL BE GIVEN DIPLOMAS

Dr. A. W. Truman to Deliver Commencement Address At High School

Members of the 1924 graduating class from the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital are to receive their diplomas Monday night at the Glendale Union High school on East Broadway. The exercises will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. A. W. Truman, medical superintendent of the institution, will give the commencement address. The Florence Nightingale pledge will be administered by Mrs. Daisy D. Harris, superintendent of nurses. In concluding the exercises the diplomas will be presented by Dr. H. G. Westphal, chief surgeon.

Alumni of the sanitarium and hospital are to meet Tuesday night at the new sanitarium building for their annual banquet. Miss Veda Marsh, instructor of nurses, who is president of the alumni, is in charge of the progarm.

Hanson Will Preside At Breakfast Meeting

Peter Hanson, president of the Glendale Realty board, has been asked by Henry P. Barbour, president of the California Real Estate association, to preside at the breakfast conference of board presidents that is to be held during the approaching convention in Pasadena. This conference which is regarded as one of the most important scheduled during the four-day meet, will be held in the Huntington hotel at Pasadena on the morning of October 9.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23.—Search was launched here today for Lew W. Stone, 40, stock salesman, who, police said, had been mysteriously missing for four days.

EAGLE ROCK GIRL WEDS GLENDALIAN

Nuptials of Miss Myra Johns And Joseph Rhodes Is Event of Season

One of the summer's most beautiful weddings took place last night, August 22, 1924, at 8:30 o'clock, in the Glendale Presbyterian church when Miss Myra F. Johns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Johns of 2362 Colorado street, Eagle Rock, became the wife of Joseph R. Rhodes, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Rhodes of 1326 Stanley avenue, Glendale.

Rev. W. E. Edmonds, pastor of the Glendale Presbyterian church, was the officiant. The nuptials were witnessed by hosts of long-time residents of Glendale and close friends of the bride and her family and by many college friends of Miss Johns' at the University of California, Southern Branch.

Ferns, white asters and sprays of goldenrod, formed the background for an arch, fashioned before the chancel, which was decorated with white streamers and ferns, forming a canopy effect. From its center hung a white wedding bell, tied with white tulle. Beneath the arch were two gates covered with white streamers and fern. During the entrance of the bridal party these were opened by the two flower girls. Sprays of feathery fern outlined the pews down the center aisle. The arch was the work of Estelle Brain.

Eight Bridesmaids

At exactly the hour set for the ceremony John T. Jenkins of Glendale, sang "Because" (d'Hardelot), and "I Love You Truly" (Bond). For the processional march, Oscar F. Walton played on the organ the Lohengrin "Bridal Chorus" and, after the ceremony the Mendelssohn March.

Attending Miss Johns as bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Jane Bolt, Mrs. John T. Jenkins, Mrs. Herbert Brown, Mrs. Charles Cannon, Miss Esther Black, Miss Edna Farner, Miss Agnes Tupper, all of Glendale, and Miss Dorothy

VOTE FOR

O. B. MANCHESTER

Candidate for Supervisor

Primary Election August 26

Taxes have advanced steadily year by year, and yet we have been told that the rate has been reduced six per cent.

What does it profit a man if the rate has been reduced if the valuation is increased so the final result in the tax bill is an increase of from 10% to 50%? Compare the 1923 tax bill with that of 1922, that will give you the facts.

Los Angeles County with its problems of roads, hospitals, water conservation, is a great and ever increasing county and its management requires careful planning today and wisdom for the future.

I have served the taxpayers of Los Angeles County for over twenty-one years in the various departments of the County Treasurer's Office, which service speaks for itself, lately resigning from the Chief Deputyship.

I solicit your support.

Yours sincerely,

O. B. MANCHESTER.

Daily Greeting To News Readers

I MAY BE—
Poor, but it costs little to keep clean.
Unlucky, but I need not add the misfortune of self-pity.
Homely, but at least I can have a beautiful smile.
Clumsy, but I need not cultivate rude speech.
Down, but I am never out until I admit it.
Stupid, but it doesn't show as much when I keep silent.
Discouraged, but the world begins all over again in the morning.

DEFENSE DAY AS A CAMPAIGN ISSUE

The plans of the War Department for Defense Day have been made a campaign issue, the opponents of the administration criticizing the plan as a military gesture and the governors of four states refusing to co-operate. People who want peace will never be able to agree on the way to bring it about any more than all human beings will agree on any other question. There are those who feel that a certain measure of preparedness would stop war, that we were unprepared for the War of 1812, for the Civil War and for the World War. But they came and our loss was greater because we were unprepared.

There are those who are familiar with the military strength of the country who declare that the danger in Defense Day is not that we threaten any other nation but that such a demonstration will inevitably show to other nations our weakness and our inability to mobilize quickly.

Others commend the plan but declare that since both Republicans and Democrats have incorporated in their platforms the plan of drafting all the people and all the resources of the country in case of war, that Defense Day should also include mobilization of wealth and workers and not the military alone, and that capital should be drafted to pay the expenses of the day.

While Governor Bryan is well known for his pacifism, and his running mate John W. Davis has declared against what he calls, "Ill-advised, so-called mobilization day," it is La Follette who is making an issue of Defense Day. The Literary Digest reprints from the New York Evening Post the following: "Pacifism searching for a political outlet cannot go to Coolidge and the Republicans. It cannot go to the Democrats. Their platform says: 'We advocate an army and navy adequate for our national safety.' The only political gate for pacifism is La Folletteism; and that gate has been most thoughtfully left wide open."

And from the Philadelphia Public Ledger:

"La Follette has fostered this brand of pacifism for years, first in Wisconsin and then through the Northwest. With his record and his platform he can use the war issue and pacifism where and when he pleases. He did so in Wisconsin two years ago, thanking God that he opposed the war and glorying in the evil eminence to which his war record raised him. His reported speech at Wausau in September, 1922, slandered America's dead. He picked with contemptuous fingers at the graves of those who died at Chateau-Thierry, along the Meuse, and in the Argonne woods. Every caught and uncaught slacker and every congenital disloyalist cheered him.

"The war record of La Follette makes him the logical candidate of pacifism. It now seems to be hunting for a political home and trying to make itself a political issue. If so, it can find that home with La Follette and La Folletteism. That is the only place it can find it in American political thought or American politics."

President Coolidge gives his approval to Defense Day and explains his stand as follows:

"It is a non-militaristic gesture, for the purpose of keeping down to its lowest possible point the professional military organizations of the United States. Our country has always relied chiefly for its defense upon the readiness of its patriotic manhood to take up arms when necessity presented.

"Defense Day is intended to bring to the people a reminder of their plans, to dependence upon this skeleton establishment, in case our country is attacked. There can be no doubt failure to prepare for the possibility of war, at a time when that possibility was really imminent, resulted in great hardships, unnecessary expense, and the unjustifiable prolongation of the World War.

"What is proposed for September 12 is merely in compliance with the purposes of the national defense law of 1920. It is not a mobilization, and the people who first attached to it the term 'Mobilization Day,' and then proceeded to condemn it, have been utterly unfair. Most of them, I am sure, have been innocent of intent to be unfair, but they have been misled.

"Profoundly hoping that the outlawing of war from this world may be accomplished, I am unable to detect any inconsistency in giving my approval to the program of Defense Day. I wish crime might be abolished, but I would not therefore abolish courts and police protection. I wish war might be made impossible; but I would not leave my country unprotected meanwhile. The defense test seems to me a means to assure the fullest efficiency to the extremely modest defense force our country maintains."

PRICES AT LOW LEVEL

Sunset magazine is authority for the statement that the price level of the staple necessities has reached rock bottom. Wool and cotton are short, but wages, freight rates and costs to the retailer are high. Prices cannot be cut without a reduction in wages and costs. In the food line, the same condition prevails, and prices are likely to go higher rather than lower.

Lumber and building materials have come down, and iron and steel have reached the lowest point in years, but wages in the building trades remain high. In almost every line prices are approaching costs so closely that only a reduction in wages can bring them lower. And, wages are not going to be reduced.

Don't wait to buy the things you will need or to build a home with the expectation of lower prices. They are more likely to go the other way.

BRAVING THE UNKNOWN

While the American 'round the world fliers have had many set-backs and discouragements in their epoch-making flight and while much can happen between now and the day they reach the Pacific coast again, it is a matter for congratulation that the most dangerous part of the journey has been made without loss of life or serious injury, for Progress is a god who often demands human sacrifice.

It will not be tomorrow or the next day that tours around the world by airplane will become common or popular or inexpensive but that time will come some day and these intrepid fellows who are blazing the way deserve a place in history with others who have not feared to be the first to brave the unknown.

George

By DR. FRANK CRANE

Why do all Pullman travelers call the colored porter "George"?

There are other names, as Thomas and Gilbert and Ebenezer, and so forth, but the Pullman porter remains George in spite of all their efforts to enjoy other denominations. It looks as though he had been the recipient of a promise made in Holy Writ: "I will give them an everlasting name which will not be cut off."

There is a Society for the Prevention of Calling Pullman Car Porters George; which society is supposed to be out to get a hundred thousand members. It took in one hundred at one fell swoop the other day in Washington, including all the Senators who have George for first name or last. Georges Clemenceau and George M. Cohan are honorary members and George Washington is the patron saint. Every member takes oath to call no porter by the name of George.

In spite of this the condition continues. There is no use talking against a universal custom. It is said that while George Washington may have been the Father of his Country, George M. Pullman was the Father of the Sleeping-car System. It is possible that George remains the cognomen of preference because it is smooth-sounding and euphonious. He might have been called Tom, after Uncle Tom, but Tom is too much like a diminutive and suggests tom-toms and tomahawks. George, however, fits the mouth and is full sounding.

There is no accounting for names. Why was Nicholas applied to the Old Nick, and does tom-tom refer to a sort of drum, and does Paul indicate Paul Pry?

George has an honorable ancestry that reaches back to St. George, the killer of dragons, and the four Georges of English history, down to Georges Carpentier, who fell several times for the glory of his country. There is no diminutive of George. It probably represented a farmer in the first place, as Virgil's Georgics have held their place amongst the classics for years.

George is also linked in most American minds with tyranny, as they remember King George III as the author of those tyrannous measures which caused the American Revolution.

Perhaps the name George appeals to the American sense of humor, as the porter of a Pullman car is at everybody's beck and call and is farthest removed from a tyrant.

Perhaps this calling of a Pullman porter by the name of George is a species of reasoning lucus a non lucendo which appeals to the American mind. At least there is no use trying to get the Americans to stop it.

Horoscope

Again astrologers foresee a day that is not altogether fortunate for the affairs of dwellers on the planet Earth. Saturn and Mars rule in sinister aspect.

Rumors of war and troubles that cause discussion of national defense may arouse peace advocates before the autumn has far advanced.

Mars is in a place supposed to encourage aggressive and belligerent impulses among individuals and hence among nations.

Labor is subject to a direction of the stars making for discontent which has political significance without the power to achieve more than a menacing attitude.

Under this planetary government there will be tendency toward complex methods of thought and entangling plans of all sorts.

It will be recalled that old leaders are to give way to new ones at this time, so that younger men have the best chances for success in any business or political competition.

One of the prognostications for the autumn is that extremes of every sort will dominate. Droughts and floods, plenty and poverty, success and failure will be in strong contrast.

Indications of schisms in churches and political organizations again are strong.

Surprises will be many in the national election, for there will be widespread tendencies toward disintegration of political parties.

Much illness is prognosticated. Physicians will be busy and hospitals overcrowded as winter approaches.

Health currents that are fairly stimulating may be expected at this time of the month.

There is a sign read as foreshadowing many accidents and for this reason risks should be reduced to a minimum.

Persons whose birthdate it is should avoid all lines of speculation in the coming year which will present many temptatons to experiment with easy-money schemes.

Children born on this day probably will be imaginative, active and persevering. These subjects of Virgo should be trained to a strict regard for truth.

I SHALL NOT CARE

When I am dead and over me bright April
Shakes out her rain-drenched hair,
Though you should lean above me broken-hearted,
I shall not care.

I shall have peace, as leafy trees are peaceful
When rain bends down the bough,
And I shall be more silent and cold-hearted
Than you are now.

—Sara Teasdale.

Who's Who

BRIG. GEN. JOHN L. HINES

Maj. Gen. John L. Hines, now deputy chief of staff of the United States army, will succeed Brig. Gen. John J. Pershing when the latter retires from the service September 13.

Gen. Hines has had a brilliant career in the army and was decorated during the war both with the distinguished service cross for valor and the distinguished service medal for efficiency.

He was Gen. Pershing's adjutant general during the punitive expedition into Mexico in 1916-17 and accompanied him to France.

The first command of Gen. Hines in France was the Sixteenth infantry of the First division and at the time of the fighting in the Cantigny sector he was in command of the First brigade, First division, which he also led in the later offensive stroke in the region of Soissons.

He was decorated for valor for his action during the Soissons engagement.

The citation shows that when connection had been lost between the Sixteenth and Twenty-sixth infantry at a critical time Gen. Hines went through "terrific artillery fire to the front lines of the Sixteenth infantry, located its left flank and walking in front of the line encouraged the troops by his example of fearlessness and disregard of danger."

He succeeded in joining up the two regiments, "enabling the operations to be pushed forward successfully."

ANOTHER HARD QUESTION

How do they put the cats out in Venice?—Louisville Courier Journal.

The Ravings Of a Grouch

A good many of the people I know seem to be riding for a fall. I may be pessimistic but I try to place myself in the position of a man with a family who is living beyond its means and I can see no way out.

There is such a tendency today to let some one else set our standards of living for us, in the matter of material possessions. I think women are worse offenders than men in this regard. A woman has a bosom friend or a neighbor and she must live as this woman lives, have the kind of a house she has and dress as she dresses.

A woman who is not satisfied with the things her husband can give her but who is always longing to be in a class with wealthier people must be the most miserable of human beings.

I had the chance to observe two women who lived side by side. They were both of jealous disposition and each was constantly trying to outdo and excel the other in the number and value of her possessions. If one bought a hat or a dress the other had to have one a little more expensive. If one purchased a rocking chair the other got a davenport. If one had her home redecorated the other had to have a Chevrolet. And so it went, endless and heart-breaking competition. When one moved to a finer home and neighborhood these "dear" friends saw little of each other and the other woman settled down to enjoy life and was satisfied with the things she could afford.

There is enough unhappiness in this world that we cannot prevent or avoid but for a man or woman to deliberately make himself or herself unhappy about some little thing like a hat or a floor lamp, or a radio or an automobile that some one else owns and which he or she cannot afford, is worse than childish. What do these things amount to, after all? And it is equally puerile for the one who has them to look down on those who do not.

There is no one who admires legitimate ambition more than I do. Every man ought to try to advance in his work, every woman ought to try to encourage her husband in his efforts to do better by his family. But there is a great difference between wishing for and working for a certain thing, like a home or a car, and making oneself miserable because one cannot afford it.

Life is short. There are so many important things to be done in the world. How foolish to allow material possessions to cause heartache.

LOWER COST SHOWN FOR BUILDING

Economy In Construction Is Reducing Outlay on Many Structures

By J. C. ROYLE

Special Correspondent, The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Costs of buildings are declining. That is buildings are being put up today for less money than similar buildings cost a year ago or some months ago. This does not mean, however, that wages for labor have declined or that prices of materials have suffered any decided drop. Along these lines, the movement has been one of stabilization rather than reduction, according to reliable reports from various sections of the country received by telegraph today.

The lowered cost of completed buildings, these reports agree, can be traced to economies in building, to more careful planning of structures, the use of more progressive methods, elimination of waste in materials, standardization of materials and general use of intensive efficiency systems.

The trend of wages both in the building trades and in the manufacture of materials has not been noticeably downward, although the time of bonus payments seems to have passed. Building is slowing down somewhat, but in the last month the loss as recorded in twenty-five principal cities in the country was less than one per cent, while permits issued in 301 cities involved expenditure of $254,806,000, as compared with $248,451,000 in July, 1923. The decline has not been sufficient to bring about a surplus of building artisans such as might precede a marked drop in wages. Contractors, in fact, express no marked desire for a sharp reduc-

Plane Will Guide Northern Realtors To Pasadena Meet

An airplane has been secured by the Contra Costa Real Estate Board to pilot the realtors' caravan from that county to Pasadena, according to C. A. Ricks, state director of the California Real Estate association, who announces that more than 300 realtors will be in the caravan before it reaches Pasadena on October 7 for the opening evening's stunts by realty boards.

Flying low over each town en route, Mr. Ricks states that the aviator will drop literature advertising the county and indicating the enthusiasm of the realtors in the future of the territory they represent.

REMOVE POSTERS FROM BOULEVARD

Eleven Truck Loads of Signs Consigned to Dump by City Engineer

The thousands of motorists passing along San Fernando road yesterday afternoon rubbed their eyes in amazement. Could this immaculate boulevard be the same highway that had yesterday assaulted their vision with its myriad ugly signs and posters of every description?

Hastening to Benjamin F. Dupuy, city engineer, the answer was quickly found. No less than eleven truckloads of said signs and posters had been removed from telepgraph poles, fences and posts by his order, and consigned to the city dump.

"This policy of polishing up the city streets will be continued to Verdugo road and other public highways where such advertising matter has been unlawfully placed," declared Mr. Dupuy. "The streets belong to the people and they have a right to expect that they should be kept free from such nuisances."

Move Into New Quarters

A portion of the sumptuous offices of Gilhuly & Russell, realtors, in their new home at 600 South Brand boulevard, where they will be located after next Monday. The furnishings are in mahogany, and private offices are provided for S. S. Gilhuly and G. O. Russell, partners in the firm. A glass cage also provides private offices for the managers of the insurance and loan department.

Gilhuly & Russell, realtors, will remove their offices on Monday from 212 South Brand boulevard to 600 South Brand boulevard, where they have taken a five-year lease on the corner location where H. M. Bennett formerly had his investment house and real estate business.

This announcement is made by S. S. Gilhuly, senior member of the firm, well known in Glendale as a member of the City Council and for other civic and fraternal associations. G. O. Russell, the other member of the firm, is known as a specialist on South Brand boulevard property and states that they are removing to the new location because of a definite trend southward along Brand boulevard.

Both Mr. Gilhuly and Mr. Russell are optimistic regarding the fall and winter season just ahead, believing it will be one of the greatest Glendale has ever seen.

Branch Out

S. S. GILHULY, senior partner of the firm of Gilhuly & Russell, realtors. Mr. Gilhuly is well known in Glendale as a member of the City Council and for his other affiliations.

"We did a big business last fall and winter," says Mr. Gilhuly, "but we have definite reasons for believing we will do a great deal bigger business the coming season and that is why we have taken quarters three times as large as those we formerly occupied.

"Glendale is due for a great period of prosperity and quick turnovers in real estate. Just as soon as the presidential question is settled in November, there will be a rush to buy property that will exceed anything this city has ever seen. In general the present season hints of a coming tidal wave of tourists and future residents. Wheat and corn crops have been good throughout the middle west and eastern manufacturing centers all report improved conditions and added prosperity. We are going to get the people this fall, and this firm is preparing itself to meet the situation."

As in the past, Mr. Russell states, the firm will do a general real estate and insurance business, specializing on South Brand boulevard property, but carrying many excellent residential and business listings. In addition, a building loan and financing department will be added, and trust deeds and other negotiable paper will be handled.

The sales force of Gilhuly & Russell will be increased to six men, each a specialist in his own department, states Mr. Russell, bringing the organization up to a high point of service, commensurate with the demands they expect will be placed on the firm with the rush of fall and winter business.

FRONT RANK PLACE FOR GLENDALE

City's Name on Honor Roll For Passing $1,000,000 Building Total

Glendale won a place on the roll of honor for cities throughout the entire United States whose building permits for July surpassed the $1,000,000 mark, Glendale's figures being $1,126,521, as compared to $565,036 for July, 1923. There were forty-nine cities in the United States passing the million mark last month, according to the report of national authorities, while Glendale stands in forty-fifth place.

There were only five cities in California with a higher building record for July than the amount furnished by Glendale, according to the report. These cities were Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Long Beach and Berkeley, all cities more than twice as large as Glendale. This city surpassed such cities as Houston, Tex.; Lakeland, Fla.; Toledo, Ohio, and Richmond, W. Va., in the million mark class, and Sacramento, San Jose, Stockton, Fresno, Alameda, Tacoma, Wash.; Spokane, Wash., and Everett, Wash., in Pacific

State Association Has More Members Than Ever Before

In direct refutation of the propaganda that is being widely spread throughout the country to the effect that California real estate and real estate men are in the throes of a slump, the California Real Estate association has sent to the National Association of Real Estate Boards in Chicago a report of the membership of the state association.

With in excess of 3000 paid-up active broker members, the state association is enjoying its greatest membership in its twenty years of activity in the development of the realty interests of California. The largest board in the state association is the Los Angeles board with 575 active broker members.

Pasadena Newspapers To Feature Glendale

Special articles dealing with Glendale's growth and progress will be included in the special convention editions that are to be issued by the Pasadena newspapers when the California Real Estate association meets in that city in October.

The publicity committee of the Glendale Realty Board, of which W. A. Horn is chairman, is preparing these articles and will have them ready within a few days.

PHENOMENAL GROWTH IS REVEALED

Valuation Shows Increase; Buildings, Telephones Indicate Progress

By H. THOMPSON RICH

Of The Evening News Staff.

From every angle by which the growth of a city may be measured, Glendale is the prodigy of the west, outstripping in its present expansion even the great upward leaps that in 1920 gained it the reputation of "the fastest growing city in America." Sceptics, pessimists and chronic knockers, please view the five following exhibits, all bona fide:

Exhibit A—ASSESSED VALUATION. The valuation of $47,061,355 has been placed on Glendale property by the Los Angeles county board of supervisors, for the purpose of fixing the tax rate for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1924. This is an increase of 56.4 per cent over the assessed valuation of $30,092,460, estab-

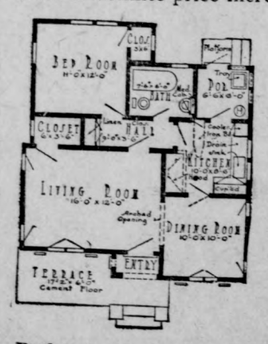
NEW DISTRIBUTOR

PACIFIC READY-CUT HOMES

In Glendale

(Special Prices Until Sept. 17)

I want to meet every prospective home builder in Glendale and vicinity. I have been appointed the distributor and builder of Pacific Ready-Cut Homes in Glendale, succeeding Low Building Company, and am here to give home builders the lowest prices that have prevailed for a long time. In fact Pacific prices are right now the lowest in five years, but these must advance September 17th, so for the next three weeks I can quote extra low prices. Reason for advance? Telegrams received last week from Northern Mills announce definite price increases.



Book of 125 Designs 50c.
Booklet of 20 Plans Free.

Others are already quoting these new prices, but Pacific prices will remain the same until September 17th, so hustle down here to my office and get estimates. Remember, I build homes complete and even help finance.

This "Spanish Adaptation" will be erected on the Southeast corner of Dryden and Cordova streets, starting within a week. It will have a very beautiful "Cloister" porch leading through a vestibule into a spacious "barrelled ceiling" living room 15x26 feet, with fireplace and three French doors leading out to a terrace. It has two bedrooms, one 13x16 feet and another 11x12 feet, large tiled bathroom with shower, built-in tub and pedestal lavatory. Dining room 12x16 feet with French doors leading out to the terrace, large up-to-date kitchen with all modern built-in features, including breakfast nook. Also screen porch and cellar with unit furnace, electrically controlled. Double garage and cement side drive; both garage and house have tile roof.

As is and will be the case with all "Homecrafts Built" homes, material and workmanship are of the highest standard, assuring the purchaser of the very best for his investment.

We have now plans and specifications ready for six such homes. Come in and inspect them.

Construction will start on this new home Monday, Aug. 25.

Heart and Home — Health and Happiness

Diet And Health

By LULU HUNT PETERS, M. D.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

Swollen Ankles

G. B. W.—You should have a thorough physical examination. The swelling of your ankles is the symptom of impairment of the circulation from some cause, possibly kidney trouble or heart trouble. Sometimes local swellings will come from sunburn and similar cause in the summer, but you had better have it investigated. Go on an exclusive fruit or milk diet for two or three days until you can see your physician.

Swollen Shins

J.—The swelling on the shin bone below your knee may be caused by the disease you mention. In the later stages it causes tumor masses known as gummas and they come in the bones as well as other organs. Go back to your physician.

Hot Flashes and Yeast Cakes

Mrs. E.—You are troubled a great deal with hot flashes, and you ask if I would advise anyone who is overweight to take yeast.

A certain amount of disturbance during the change of life is normal, but it should not be enough to distress. Overweight intensifies these disturbances markedly and reduction of the weight lessens them. The reports I get from those who have reduced during this period, verify this.

Yeast is beneficial if the diet has been deficient in the vitamin B—the anti-neuritic vitamin—and some people are benefited by taking yeast. In most cases it is better, however, to get the vitamins in the more bulky foods—fresh vegetables and fruits. Reduce your weight, Mrs. E. If you haven't our instructions, send for them. Enclose s. a. s. e. and four cents in stamps.

Mrs. J.—Can't you get in touch with the surgeon who performed your very successful operation? He would be able to tell you whether another could be performed so that you might have a child.

Chronic Appendicits

W. R.—On account of the anatomical nature of the appendix, chronic appendicitis seems to be a very difficult thing to cure even under natural methods; that is, living on a correct diet, with proper exercises and other hygienic measures for health. If the appendix is chronically inflamed there is always the possibility of a flare-up, making an acutely inflamed appendix which may rupture and be very serious. The consensus of opinion of physicians is that a chronic inflamed appendix is dangerous and should be removed. It is not a dangerous operation in skillful hands.

Permanent Waves

Lyn—Since the permanent wave has been perfected I have put my crown of glory through the process seven times. Just had it done again last week. The wave lasts until the hair grows out. Instead of being harmful in my case, it has been just the reverse. I can only answer for myself, since there have been disasters in other cases. It is not the pleasantest way to spend a few hours that I know of. But, oh, the joy of wavy hair with no further trouble!

Gum Boils

B.—Gum boils indicate that there is an infection at the roots of the teeth. You must see your dentist about these. Meanwhile, how about your diet: lots of vitamins and mineral elements (fresh vegetables, fruit, and milk?) Diet does affect the teeth.

Water Drinking

The amount of water a person should take each day depends upon so many factors, that it is impossible to make any dogmatic statement about it.

If we eat liberal amounts of fruits and vegetables, which we should do, we would need less water than if we are eating more concentrated foods. During the summer, when much water is eliminated by perspiration more water should be taken. The hard worker needs more water than the man of sedentary work. If we must say in general how much should be taken, since two and one-half quarts a day are eliminated (through the kidneys, skin and lungs) we should get at least that much.

Many people suffer from too little water drinking and it is possible, but not probable that some go to the extreme and take too much. Children need relatively more than adults. That means a whole lot.

My Dear Followers:—When sending for material which we offer you please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must enclose four cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 200 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the column as soon as possible; if they are of general interest. Don't forget the s. a. s. e. if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

A Reader—"I wonder if other women know of this way to cook squash? Instead of boiling or steaming, just break open, take out seeds and put the squash halves into your oven to bake from one to one and one-half hours. When done, peel off the top and scrape from shell. Mash and season with salt and pepper. Add butter and serve."

Answer—Thank you, Reader Friend, for sending us this excellent hint.

Mrs. R. L. H.—"Some time ago one of your readers made an inquiry about stove polish. I know you cannot give trade names in your column, but you might tell her that if she will add a little bluing to any good manufactured brand of stove polish she will like the results."

Answer—It was good of you to take the trouble to send us this discovery and I am sure many of us thank you and will try it.

Bride—"I have heard of a soap bark solution for washing dark colored silks and woolens which have a tendency to run. Can you tell me how to make it?"

Answer—Pour one quart of boiling water over one cupful of the soap bark and boil for twenty minutes. Strain this solution through cheesecloth and simply sponge the wool materials. Or add it in place of soap to one pailful of water and use for washing dark colored silks and woolens.

Mrs. L. L.—"The sizing is all off my rug. How can I put more on?"

Answer—Buy one pound of granulated glue and dissolve this in one gallon of boiling water. Tack the rug onto the floor face down, then apply this hot solution to its back with a whitewash brush.

I. M. C.—"Some time ago a reader of your column wanted to know what would remove butter coloring from a dress. Will you please tell her to rub lard on the stained part and wash it in hot soap suds. Here is another hint which the Column Readers might like: Salt sprinkled over a carpet a few days before sweeping day will keep moths out."

Answer—I think we have the most generous-spirited set of readers possible. They are always telling us their ways of doing things or taking the trouble to answer some other reader's request. I am sure we all appreciate these kind and helpful letters.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman, in care of the "Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question. Shower Honorees

Mrs. S. N. Van Wormer of 447 West Stocker street entertained last night with a miscellaneous shower, complimenting two recent brides, Mrs. Tom Griffith, nee Murray Longley and Mrs. Langley Meredith, nee Bernice Huskins.

The rooms of the Van Wormer home were attractively decorated with a profusion of pink and blue asters. This color scheme was carried out in the refreshment course and favors.

The evening was devoted to playing games and an informal social time. A feature of the entertainment was the views written by the guests on "How to Manage a Husband," which were later presented to the brides.

A number of beautiful gifts were presented to the honorees in attractively decorated waste baskets decorated in pink and blue.

Those present were Misses Louise Weddington, Cornelia Wilson, Nellie Young, Esther Griffith, Madeline Love, Vivian Anderson, Alice Petty, Linda Goertz, Margaret Eckels, Charlotte Winsel, Dorothy McGinnis, Margaret Longley, and Mesdames Ruth Jackson, Dorothy Richardson, Margaret Stewart and the guests of honor, Mrs. Tom Griffith and Mrs. Langley Meredith.

DEATHS – FUNERALS

FRED LESLIE HUSTON

The following obituary has been contributed by a friend of the late Fred Leslie Huston:

"Fred Leslie Huston was laid to rest this afternoon at Grand View Memorial cemetery. Mr. Huston was a native of Michigan, having been born at Imlay City in 1872, but in his early boyhood his parents moved to Paullina, Ia., where in 1899 he married Miss Helen Scott. A few years later the call of the west was so strong that they moved to Idaho Falls, Idaho, where he was very successful in business, and as a young man was elected state auditor, which position he held for several years.

"Here Mr. Huston also became an active church worker and was elected an elder of the Presbyterian church. Later on, when they moved to Tacoma, Wash., he entered very actively into the civic and church life of that city. He lost his health during the strenuous days of the war and came to California to regain it, but, after nearly three years of a noble struggle, he was called home to his reward.

"While here in Glendale, he and his wife and two daughters were active members of the Presbyterian church, and Mr. Houston himself, as a strong Christian man, was very fond of the young men's Bible class of that church. Many friends mourn his loss and join his family in their sorrow."

The following obituary for John Quincy Gilman, who died Sunday at his home, 801 East Acacia street, has been submitted to The Glendale Evening News:

"Captain John Quincy Gilman, a descendant of John Quincy Adams, was born in Hollowell, Maine, in 1851. He came to Minneapolis, Minn., in 1877 and entered business. In 1878 he married Ida Ione Blaisdell. This union was blessed with two children, a daughter, Lillian, and a son, Raymond. The daughter passed away in early womanhood, the son is the comfort of his widowed mother.

"Captain Gilman was a member of the Minneapolis fire department for twenty-seven years, retiring with the rank of captain, an office he held for many years in the department.

"The departed brother became a member of North Star lodge No. 6, I. O. O. F., of Minneapolis, forty-two years ago. He was also a member in good standing for many years of the order of the Eagles and the Loyal Order of Moose.

"Always living the tenets of these various brotherhoods, Brother Gilman was ever ready with an extended hand and willing heart to help the needy or to do a deed of kindness whenever the opportunity permitted."

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon in the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Memorial park, with Rev. C. R. Norton officiating. The L. G. Scovern Undertaking company was in charge.

Morning Wedding

At an early morning wedding, taking place at 8 o'clock this morning, Saturday, August 23, 1924, in the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Memorial park, Miss Evelyn Apple of Los Angeles, was the bride of F. O. Ball of El Paso, Texas. The bridal service was read by Rev. E. Morgan Isaacs of Eagle Rock.

Attending were Marjorie Ball, maid of honor; Marshall Ball, best man. Frances Margaret Froelich, flower girl.

There were four bridal songs sung. Before the ceremony Alice Brown sang "I Love You Truly" (Bond) and "Because" (d'Hardelot); during and following the service Wilhelmina Brener sang "Oh Promise Me," and Joy Kingan sang "O Perfect Love."

Miss Apple was gowned in white georgette crepe.

Guests were Mr. Ball's mother, Mrs. Grace Ball; Florence, Bertha, Hilda and Mrs. Kate Keiper; Marshall Ball, Marjorie Ball, Frances Margaret Froelich, M. W. McGee, Ruth McGee, Mrs. John Leenhoults, Margaret Frenhel.

Romance in Work

It is not believed the service has proven detrimental to the telegraph companies, since there has been no appreciable falling off in business from coast to coast reported. The sending of delayed delivery telegrams may have been curtailed slightly, but the use of telegraph wires for short and important messages has not suffered.

The service has been spectacular because of night flying and because of the wide expanses of plain, desert and mountain traversed and this, perhaps, has taken first place in the mind of the general public. But behind the romance of the flying, mail is a hard business proposition, which is highly profitable and undoubtedly bound to be permanent.

wear a uniform. But no member must attempt to imitate or in any way approach the uniform of the commander in chief. Garvey's outfit is beyond description. King Solomon in all his glory was never arrayed like that. The Garvey uniform is designed for both land and sea duty, for ashore he is a generalissimo and afloat he is an admiralissimo. At all times a great gold bedecked sabre clanks at his heels.

Followers Loyal

Garvey still retains the affection and loyalty of his followers despite the fact that his personally conducted exodus to Africa has been so long postponed and despite the fact that the unfeeling United States government has him convicted of using the mails to defraud. A little thing like a five years' sentence has not daunted the spirit of the self-constituted Moses. He is out on $20,000 bail and not a moment of his time is idle. His first project was called the "Black Star line." That was the one that got him into trouble. His new Black Cross Line is his answer to his critics and "persecutors." The flagship of the Black Star Line was officered and manned by colored men when Garvey took it on a West Indian cruise as a preliminary to the first crossing to Africa. It is related that on this trip the officers could not find Jamaica. The island was not big enough. It also is related that the galloping ivories and the pursuit of lady luck occupied so much of the time of the crew and the passengers there was little real thought or attention paid to the higher projects of the promoters.

Garvey has announced that the officers of the Booker T. Washington will be white and the crew colored. He expects the first sailing to be in November and the steamer is designed to carry seventy-five first-class and 100 second-class passengers. Of course at this rate, it would take some time to transport the entire 7,000,000 negroes enlisted in the cause, but Garvey's facile imagination pictures a great fleet shortly engaged in the maneuvers. If passengers are lacking at first Garvey says the boats will be used for cargo purposes.

Texas Election Is Divided by K. K. K.

Texans voted. Because of the intense bitterness the present campaign has aroused, even more are expected to go to the polls today.

Interest is centered in the campaign for governor. Opposed are Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, whose husband was refused a place on the ticket because he had been impeached and removed from office, and District Judge Felix D. Robertson of Dallas. In the campaign now drawing to a close, Robertson has centered his attacks on the Ferguson record and has declared that prohibition is the issue and not the klan.

The women supporting Mrs. Ferguson are wearing sunbonnets and are shouting as their battle cry, "Me for Ma." The woman herself has appeared at most of the campaign rallies and in a number of instances has made prolonged addresses. However, as a general rule she calls forward her husband after speaking a few words, explaining that "Jim will talk for me."

They will visit in San Francisco and in St. Joseph, Mo., will spend a few days with Mrs. Baird's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Alverson.

TUJUNGA NOTES

TUJUNGA, Aug. 23.—Troop No. 2, Boy Scouts of America, will give a benefit performance at the Tujunga Valley theatre September 2 and 3. A moving picture and vaudeville show will be given to raise funds for the purchase of pniforms for the boys of the troop. The theatre manager has donated the use of the theatre for the two nights. Dicken's "David Copperfield" in pictures and several acts of high-class vaudeville will be offered. Scoutmaster Brunner of the troop has offered a watch to the boy selling the most tickets for the show.

Mrs. Hattie Railsback and children of San Jacinto have been visiting Mrs. Railsback's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wright.

J. W. Russell, formerly connected with the Tujunga Supply company, has purchased the furniture store operated by Leonard Howe on Michigan avenue.

Mrs. Philip Reihm of Tujunga has been entertaining her sister, Mrs. Frank Lotta of San Diego.

Mrs. Alma Wieman has gone to Ann Arbor, Mich., to visit her son, Elton Wieman, who is athletic instructor and coach there.

C. L. Dresser, formerly with Leonard Rowe in the furniture business in Tujunga, is now with the Montrose Furniture company.

Dr. L. H. Perner is recovering from injuries sustained when a horse he was riding reared and fell backward, pinning the doctor underneath and breaking several of the doctor's ribs.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Zachau recently entertained several Tujunga friends at their Balboa cottage. In the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Stover, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Aiken, Miss Frances Morgan, Carroll W. Parcher.

Mrs. Earl Brunner has returned from a visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Jonas, Santa Monica.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Parcher recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Miller, Jimmie Miller and Mrs. Mary F. Scranton at dinner.

Community sings are held every Sunday evening at the Garden of the Moon park, under the auspices of the Tujunga Woman's club.

NEW YORK CLOSING

By W. S. COUSINS
For International News Service.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Industrial and railroad stocks were worked down to a lower price level in the short session of the stock market today as offerings continued to flood the market in extension of the selling movement which started in the last hour on Friday.

Fractional losses at the opening of the market were gradually extended as the session proceeded, and only in exceptional cases, principally in the rails, were the market leaders able to tsem the tide. At the end of the first hour stocks like American Can, Cast iron Pipe, Baldwin, Atlantic Refining and New York Central, were depressed about a point on the average, after which there were signs of another rally in the making.

Industrial reports at the week-end and economic surveys by prominent authorities were favorable and sentiment in the market place was improved rather than depressed by the flurry in the stock market which concluded yesterday's active session. It was generally accepted as a corrective movement in a market that has been moving forward quite briskly of late. The money market is now being watched for additional signs of hardening, and while not depriving the stock market of necessary funds, such a development would be an evidence that the long heralded business revival is at last within hailing distance.

Reactionary trends were also evident in the bond, grain and cotton markets, though in each of these declines were moderate and based on special influences. Cotton was hesitant on account of the proximity of the government's report at noon, the market closing fifteen minutes earlier in order to avoid confusion.

The motor stocks were offered in large volume today and declines took place in stocks which were prominent in the last bull movement. Chandler sold today at 46¾ against 50¼ earlier in the week; Mack Truck at 99¾ showed a loss of about six points from Wednesday and White Motors at 62 was down 3. Coppers dropped some of their recent gains as stocks like Kennecott, Anaconda and Chile were pressed for sale and high priced industrials received further attention from the bears and profit-taking long traders. Oils were active, there being apparently few stocks in this group for sale at the present price level. Atlantic Refining was active and fairly strong and Standard Oils showed a disposition to win back a part of yesterday's losses.

Buying of St. Paul preferred featured the rails. At 26 this stock has rallied nearly 2 points from yesterday's low.

Stock sales today totalled 460,000 shares; bonds, $6,983,000.

Stock sales for week totalled 6,048,800 shares; bonds, $71,478,000.

BUILDING PERMITS

Total for year 1921	$ 5,099,201
Total for year 1922	6,305,971
Total for year 1923	10,047,694
Total for 1924 to date	6,872,874

Building permits for August totaled $479,086 at noon today, bringing the total for the year to $6,872,874, according to figures in the office of H. C. Vandewater, building superintendent. Following is the list of permits issued since noon yesterday:

Miss Floyd, 7 rooms and garage, 1431 Hillside drive	$6,000
E. Meinard, stores, 505-07 East Broadway	4,000
Louis Gratias, 6 rooms and garage, 925 Highland avenue	4,000
M. Stonehouse, 5 rooms and garage, 1220 North Pacific avenue	4,000

Reports of heavy frosts at Mortrose, S. D., has caused concern in the grain market. Iowa corn is in danger of cold weather, today.

Defi Hurled at Klan By Dawes In Speech

isted, and it was averted only by a few clear-headed men."

Speaking on the tariff question, labor and budget problems, General Dawes said:

Quotes Figures

"In the domain of finance a budget system was promptly enacted and put into operation, resulting in tremendous savings. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1921, our expenditures were $5,538,000,000, and our surplus was $86,000,000. For the year just closed, our expenditures were $3,497,000,000, and our surplus exceeded $500,000,000. This was a reduction in the annual cost of government of $2,041,000,000. The public debt now stands at about $21,250,000,000, which is a reduction in three years of about $2,750,000,000. Let Americans think this over.

"American labor knows that its interests are subserved by the position of the Republican party on the tariff. It knows that its welfare depends upon the protective tariff policy sponsored by the Republican party, and that the reversal of that policy, demanded by the Democratic party, means lowered wages and a lowered standard of living. It knows that the success of La Follette means chaos, out of which can only come lower wages and lower standards of living for all our people.

Attacks Red Flag

"General phrases are all very well, but American labor is too intelligent to be fooled as to where its interests lie in the tariff question. They are too intelligent to be fooled, also, by a certain brand of nebulous claptrap, preached to them by a few leaders who want to use them as a political asset in a combination with socialists, flying the red flag.

"As I said in my speech of acceptance: "The Democratic party asks the American people to turn back with it into the morass of the debate on the League of Nations, through a public referendum, thereby paralyzing the hope of constructive action and policy in this time of an existing world crisis.

"The Republican platform on foreign relations outlines a policy which carried out with the common sense, clear vision and courage of Calvin Coolidge, offers the American people a constructive course of honor, safety and progress, for its own and the world's good. It offers the only policy which, at the present time, means the possibility of accomplishment.

By Southland News Service

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23.—Heavy sales of Edison and Sierra Power company bonds and a scattered light activity in the range of stocks, principally oil and mines, was the week-end report of the Los Angeles stock exchange today.

Los Angeles Investment scored a slight gain, opening at $3.57 adn closing at $3.59. Globe Grain & Milling was active and firm at $55.

In the oils, Union of California and Standard of California were the leaders, the former showing a 4-point gain to $132.50. Standard was up 2 points to $57.50.

Julian preferred hardly recuperated from yesterday's attack and sold at $12.50 and $12.25. Common was dull at $7.50.

Twenty thousand shares of Edicon bonds sold at $100, while 1000 Sierras brought $89.50. Other bond sales were light.

The announcement was posted that the exchange will be closed Tuesday, primary election day.

Stiffening in money rates, the calling of some loans by New York bankers and weakness of Liberty bonds as a result are reported today.

NEW BRIDAL PLAN

LONDON, Aug. 23.—Autumn brides are wearing their orange blossoms with a difference. Orange blossoms hold the veil in place, being arranged in a wreath around the head. And orange blossoms also form the girdle, which is placed low.

FUR ON NEW COATS

PARIS, Aug. 23.—Fur almost-smothers the newest coats. Of sumptuous materials, they end at the neck in high ermine collars—or collars of mole or seal, as the case may be—and they disappear at the knees into a fluff of twelve-inch-wide fur banding.

NECKLACE STYLES

LONDON, Aug. 23.—The fashionable woman today does not dream of wearing her necklace with the loop in front. She ties the long strand of beads or jewels into a loose knot at the back of the neck and lets it hang between her shoulders.

Elect McCartney Superior Court Judge

We, the undersigned, Citizens of Glendale, Los Angeles County, recognizing the ability and integrity of Attorney H. S. G. McCartney, and his experience of over 20 years as an active practitioner in the courts of our State, and in public positions of trust and confidence, and his sterling qualities as a respected citizen of Los Angeles County for over 30 years, do hereby endorse and recommend his election to the office of Judge of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles, for which position he is now a candidate. By his election, Los Angeles County will have as one of its Judges, a man who we are certain will fairly and justly administer the responsible duties of that office.

SUGAR BEET CROP WILL AID EUROPE

Increased Production to Steady Agricultural Interests More

By J. C. ROYLE
Special Correspondence of the Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Europe knows not only on which side its bread is buttered but on which side it is sugared. With exceptionally good weather favoring the European growers of sugar beets, there is every prospect that Europe's sugar production will be 1,500,000 tons above that of last year. It was therefore assured that Europe not only will sugar its own bread but will sell enough of the sweet product to provide additional bread and butter.

This fact has an intimate bearing on the United States and one of its basic industries. Cuba is looking forward to a record crop in 1925 unless both weather and labor fail. There is more cane on the island than ever before and the condition of the fields is good. At least three new mills will be completed in time to grind next season.

Scientists and farmers declare cultivation of sugar beets was a large factor in building up the agricultural resources of Continental Europe and citizens of European nations, naturally, are anxious to utilize this crop to the fullest extent in restoring their lands to former productive capacity. It was the boast of Germany before the war that the country had become agriculturally great by selling to other nations sugar which took nothing from the land but was derived from air and water through the medium of the sugar beet, and buying abroad wheat and other foodstuffs which made heavy drafts on the fertility of the soil.

Learn Same Lesson

Other nations in Europe have learned the same lesson. In Czecho-Slovakia, for example, the government has fixed the wholesale price of sugar at a figure above the level of the world markets so manufacturers could pay producers a good price for their beets and keep up cultivation of the crop. Rumania, Bulgaria and Jugo-Slavia have greatly increased their production of sugar while Latvia, Lithuania and even Finland are making a strong effort to supply the sugar requirements of their peoples from their own soils. These facts are borne out by recent American visitors to Europe.

"The war gave European agriculture a terrific setback," said A. E. Carlton, president of the Holly Sugar corporation, who has just returned from a two months' survey of the European situation today. "Inability to apply fertilizer, lack of labor and the necessity of concentrating on emergency food crops have caused a rapid deterioration of the soil and the European nations naturally are anxious to utilize the best crop in restoring their lands to former productivity.

"The most striking example of the importance of the situation is furnished by Great Britain. Before the war Great Britain was fully committed to free trade. With a great industrial population, it bought its food in the cheapest market. It purchased sugar to the extent of some $200,000,000 a year, much of it from Germany and Austria Hungary, and refused to do anything to encourage sugar production at home or in its colonies. The result was to build up the resources of the Central Empires. This lesson has not been lost on the British.

"The United States has its own agricultural problems. We are producing too much of certain crops which cannot find a ready market, in the present depleted state of foreign finances, and spending hundreds of millions a year for other products we might produce at home. We need greater diversification of crops and a more extensive cultivation of home products. No policy would do more for American agriculture than the encouragement of the sugar beet culture."

In support of this contention, domestic sugar men point to the fact that at this time, when the Cuba crop largely has been sold and the market might otherwise be subject to manipulation by refiners of Cuban sugar, California beet sugar, the first of the domestic crop to reach the market, is being sold as far east as Chicago at 6.50 cents a pound, seaboard basis, and guaranteed against decline, thus stabilizing the market.

Activity Is Evident In Wholesale Trade

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 23.—Wholesalers report trade fairly good with evidence of quickening activity as fall approaches. Large numbers of retailers are here for fall market week which began Monday and purchases have been on a larger scale in lines which heretofore felt only a limited demand. Felt and blanket lined coats, corduroy and finished woolens showed improvement, as did flannel shirts, underwear and hosiery. The growth of Kansas City as a ready-to-wear clothing center is attracting many buyers who formerly sought eastern markets and is enlarging the business done in dry goods and allied lines. It is estimated 40 manufacturers, jobbers and representatives now have established here complete displays and stocks of men's and women's clothing.

MOLESKIN TRIM

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Painting the lily is nothing compared with dyeing the mole. Some of the autumn coats have moleskin collars and other trimmings dyed in three shades of sand and brown.

DAWES APPEALS TO CONSERVATIVES

Political Writer Sees Good Strategy In Republican's Attack on La Follette

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Special correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—General Charles G. Dawes' speech of acceptance awakens here among Republicans, even more enthusiasm than the address of President Coolidge—not because he expounds the issues any more skilfully, but because he takes an aggressive position. And politicians like the fire of an attack.

It was the Republican vice-presidential nominee's attack on La Follette and radicalism, however, which made it inspiring to the Republicans. Whatever misgivings there may have been immediately after the Cleveland convention when General Dawes was nominated over the protest of friends of President Coolidge who feared the effect of General Dawes' anti-union labor utterances, there is no doubt now that since La Follette has entered the race and labor has endorsed La-Follette, the Republicans are more than glad of a champion of the Dawes type who appeals to the conservative business interests of the country.

To Gather Conservatives

The whole Republican strategy is to gather Democratic and Republican conservatives under the Coolidge-Dawes banner. There are more conservatives if the combined Republican and Democratic strength is measured than there are radicals, especially those of the extreme type. Mr. Dawes concedes that John W. Davis is safe and sound but argues that the three-cornered fight may deadlock the contest and make Governor Bryan president. The Democras will use the same argument, no doubt, to convince labor that by voting for La Follette, they are throwing their votes away.

But, as an example of Republican doctrine which fits in with the desires of conservatives who think the only way to kill La Follette is and radicalism is to knock into the head by strong utterances, the speech of General Dawes is the first gun in what may be expected to be a vigorous offensive on his part all through the campaign. His prestige in connection with the settlement of the reparations problem has given him more than ordinary powers to attract attention. He is not the usual kind of vice-presidential candidate. His speeches will draw crowds and will be read. So, while the silent Calvin Coolidge will conduct the dignified campaign of a president seeking continuance in power, the vice-presidential nominee will be engaged in the "rough-and-tumble" game of politics and hit hard. His speech of acceptance was along that line. He called Senator La-Follette by name and condemned his program unequivocally. From now on, there will be no quarter.

He Gets Publicity

General Dawes, moreover, is to be the animated answer to the criticism that the Republicans have done nothing on foreign policy. Every day's news dispatches tell of the operation of what has been called the Dawes plan. If Europe begins an era of recovery and prosperity is reflected back to America the Republicans will keep on talking about the Dawes plan. The speech of the vice-presidential candidate contains no new promises of constructive legislation but argues that the policy of La Follette is unsafe and unsound and that the surest way to avoid it is to stick to the conservative band wagon with a ticket that is conservative at both ends. The suggestion of General Dawes that the Democrats are "straddling" between the two extremes, is a keynote in itself. It is what the Republican managers will try to accomplish in the campaign—they want the public to have the impression that the fight is between radicalism and conservatism of a common sense sort and that theirs is no middle ground.

The speech of John W. Davis, at Columbus, next week, is looked forward to now as the next development in the campaign, for in it no doubt there will be an answer to the questions raised by General Dawes.

Shoe Fashions Call For New Hose Shades

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 23.—One of the largest local stocking manufacturing plants is having goods sent back to it in large quantities for re-dyeing. This is attributed to the change in the demand for women's shoes. The brightly colored footwear has dropped for the more sober black and brown shades. Work at the hosiery mills here is quiet with a good many piece workers idle. To retain their most valued workers, many mills have put a selected list on a time payment basis assuring a fair compensation until business picks up again. Girl knitters and menders in local plants make from $30 to $35 a week as piece workers.

Covered Wagon Forms Vehicle for Tourists

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 23.—Residents of Santa Barbara were exposed to a brief course in "ancient history" recently when an odd appearing vehicle lumbered down the main thoroughfare. On closer scrutiny it was learned that a tourist party from Colorado was seeing the sights in a sure enough covered wagon. "Traveling this way," they said, "we're sure not to miss anything."

A Bashful Stove Salesman

One of our many customers phoned the office the other day and asked for the manager of the stove department, and said:

This is Mrs.———of so and so address, and I recently had one of your wonderful Direct Action Gas Ranges installed, one without the bottom in the oven, and I just want to tell you that the young man who sold me that stove did not say half enough about it. Why, he didn't begin to tell me all the wonderful things that the Lorain Regulator will do. Yes, I just love my stove, and I can't begin to say enough about it. And my sister, who lives over in Eagle Rock, wants one just like mine, and you have the young man go see her and tell him not to be so bashful.

"PRICE CUTTING CONDEMNED"

IS UNSOUND BUSINESS PRACTICE, UNFAIR COMPETITION AND DESTRUCTIVE TO ALL INTERESTS CONCERNED

E. R. Squibb & Sons Therefore Cannot Recognize as a Friend Any Dealer, Either Wholesale or Retail, Who Sells Any Squibb Product at a Price Which Does Not Leave Him Reasonable Profit

TO THE WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DRUG TRADE:

We receive so many inquiries regarding our attitude toward price-cutting that we feel a brief announcement on this subject should be made in order to leave no doubt as to where we stand.

We emphatically disapprove of price-cutting because it destroys profits which are necessary for the conducting of business; because it demoralizes the trade by unfair competition; because it upsets public confidence in standard products; because it hurts the consumer, for it inevitably leads to untrustworthy service; because it injures the state, for it weakens the economic life of its citizens; in one word—because price-cutting is destructive to all interests.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

Hilary reminded herself that she must not judge this man by American standards. His passionate devotion to his art was Kronski's reason for being; she knew in looking at his keen, thin face that his own capacity for emotion was all absorbed in his work. His very disillusionment with life, his years of bitter poverty and struggle, would save him from even the weakness of a Cecil Atherton, and from all the playing with realities that made Dora's set so sensual under their fragrance and beauty and softness and daintiness.

"Kronski," she said, suddenly, struck with a heartening thought, and perhaps reminded of Dora by his oddly pertinent views of wifehood, "if my sister comes to you, would Herr von Mandescheid teach her?"

"I offer it three years ago, I am not to change this offer," Kronski said, magnificently, with his mouth full. "Who is now her teacher?"

"She hasn't touched her violin to work, for almost two years," Hilary confessed, ashamed. Kronski merely scowled his contempt, shrugged his shoulders, and went on eating.

After lunch they went up to see the studio, Hilary as gaily at home with these two as if she had known them all her life. They were real, she thought, studying them in the taxicab, and listening to their talk about some new opera. Kronski wanted a theme; Hilary, who had the score on her old square piano, at home in Mount Holly, could supply it. The old man was ecstatic in his admiration; he talked to her of the opera, and almost immediately afterward made her laugh by telling her pathetically that a hole was worn in one of his socks, and the toe had worked through, and was being chafed.

The studio was magnificent; an immense room with a high ceiling and north windows twelve feet tall. Outside these windows were iron balconies, and below them the grim, leafless park, with children screaming on the icepond.

Inside was a tremendous and soothing bareness; one great dull rug stretched at an angle on the polished floor, one or two great unframed canvases on the dull, distempered walls, and two enormous iron candlesticks beside the big fireplace. Trunks stood about in the process of unpacking, and four men were grunting over the business of setting up a concert grand piano.

When they went back to the studio Hilary sat down at the piano, dusting the long bench with one of her gloves, and striking the keys with all the delight of the artist. Von Mandescheid came to stand beside her, humming and marking time, and Kronski, who was in the hall with the movers, rushed back, and seized his violin. She gave him his string-notes expertly, improvising little flights of chord and runs between the whining of the altered strings, and when they laughingly went through the sonata movement into which she had drifted, Von Mandescheid kissed her clever fingers reverently, with all the respect of one musician for another.

But Kronski could play no longer, his manager was announced. Von Mandescheid went off to change his stockings, as he explained, and Hilary went out into the Avenue again. She wished that Kronski had not said to her awkwardly, when the manager was announced: "Here, I cannot talk to you any longer, an' I cannot ask you to remain, because my cook and valet are unpacking, and there is no place for you!"

It was only his European frankness and simplicity, of course; she knew that she had given him a happy hour or two, and that he had thoroughly enjoyed the meeting and the late breakfast, as she had. But she wished he was not quite so foreign!

Walking down the crowded street, at half-past three o'clock, Hilary felt a sudden exhilaration in her veins. She thought of Dora's problem, but it was in a new way, it was with a certain confidence and strength. Dora was wrong, and she must be prevented from doing this sort of thing again. It was preposterous to have Craig, and to have Hilary herself trembling and worrying over what Dora chose to do or not to do. Butterfly was a woman now. Hilary had worried about Dora all her life; had carried a double responsibility for all the twenty years of Dora's life.

Now she suddenly felt free and powerful. Her unexpected empty day had been filled independently of Dora, and delightfully filled. Had Butterfly accompanied her this morning, all this pleasure would have escaped her. Dora had small interest except for her own small crowd; she would have greeted Kronski apathetically, she would have satisfied herself by merely giving him the address of the restaurant, if indeed her concern for his hunger had gone that far, and she would have then abandoned him, and asked Hilary indifferently if they had better go to the club for luncheon, or if they mightn't telephone someone to meet them at Ritz?"

"Dora makes a great mistake," Hilary decided, bracingly, smiling at her own trim reflection in shop windows. "She is pretty, but where would she be if she and Craig had a serious split? Back in Mount Holly with me, and I can assure her," she continued, argumentatively, "that she would not find it all so easy and pleasant as it was! I'm nearly twenty-six, I'm no child, and I certainly shall not take Dora's side unless she comes to her senses and acts like a sensible woman."

This emancipation from Dora come to her suddenly, with all the exhilaration of a discovery. She had been too much wrapped in Dora's life; praying for her, awaiting her letters, talking to everyone she knew only of Dora! Kronski, today, had been frankly disgusted with Dora, a girl who inherited her mother's gift and her mother's Amati, and who allowed years to go by without improving her opportunities.

"And if he knew that it was Bobby Wendell and Cecil Atherton who were taking up her time," Hilary thought, "he would be even more disgusted!"

She went into the house breezily, at four o'clock. Mrs. Spaulding was at home, Banks said, and would be glad to see Miss Collier in her room.

Dora was lying on the big divan before her fire; she had been crying. She said her head ached, and she thought Craig ought to be ashamed of himself for behaving so! They had had a dinner engagement with the Rogers' tonight, and he had telephoned Mrs. Rogers that he would be out of town. And he had moved into his mother's empty room; so idiotic, raged Dora, letting the servants suspect everything!

"You are the idiotic one, Butterfly," Hilary said, sternly, remaining on her feet, and looking at her sister with disapproving eyes. "I'm surprised at you—I can't tell you what I've been thinking about you all day. A woman your age, and married two years, letting herself be involved with a whipper-snapper like Cecil Atherton! Craig's quite right; and if you don't like being his wife, and behaving yourself as his wife, you ought to go about the thing decently, and not in this shilly-shallying way! You ought to get that miniature back from Cecil Atherton, and tell Craig that you'll drop him."

"The Love Test" will be presented tonight for the last time at the tent theatre of Murphy's Comedians at Central avenue and Stocker street, Casa Verdugo. Starting Sunday and showing for a week, "The Stampede," a Western drama, is the play, announces J. A. Menard, manager.

As its name would imply, "The Love Test" is a comedy. It is, moreover, one of the funniest comedies local theatre-goers have seen for a long while. Joseph P. Judge, one of the really clever dramatists now writing, is the author. The curtain rises at 8 o'clock.

THE CLENDALE

"Ride For Your Life" concludes today at the Glendale theatre. "Fools in the Dark" is the feature Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

THE T. D. & L

"The Woman on the Jury" concludes today at the T. D. & L. theatre. Sunday to Tuesday the feature is "Single Wives."

THE GATEWAY

"Broadway After Dark" concludes today at the Gateway theatre. "The Covered Wagon" is the feature Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Sale of State Lands Draws Texas Buyers

FORT WORTH, Tex., Aug. 23.—Fifteen hundred people have inspected the 200,000 acres of state land which will go on sale in September in the upper Panhandle of Texas. This property, much of which will be turned into small farms, was a part of the ranches recovered by the state from the syndicate which built the state capitol at Austin. The land will be sold to the highest bidders, and its development is expected to do much for that section.

Uncle Wiggily

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY'S PEBBLE PUDDING

"Nurse Jane, if you will be so kind, should anyone ask where I am going, do not tell them."

Uncle Wiggily said this to his muskrat lady housekeeper one day as he started to hop away from the driftwood bungalow where he was spending his vacation at the seashore.

"How can I tell them where you are going, when I do not know myself?" asked Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy. "I suppose you are going off adventuring, but where you go, and what you do, is more than I know—until you come back."

"No, I am not going adventuring," said Uncle Wiggily, with a smile. "I am just going down the beach a little way, where I can sit down on the sand and think."

"What are you going to think about?" asked Nurse Jane.

"There is going to be a party at the Board Walk Bungalow this evening," said the rabbit gentleman. "I am supposed to tell a bedtime story for the children. I am going down on the beach to think up a good story for them, and I don't want to be bothered."

"All right," laughed Nurse Jane, "I won't tell them where you are. Hop along, Wiggy."

So Uncle Wiggily hopped along, and soon he was all alone by himself, far down the beach, where there were many rocks, pebbles and strands of seaweed tossed up by the waves.

"This will be a good place to think," said the bunny rabbit.

Down he sat himself on some soft sand. All kinds of stories ran through his head. He wanted a jolly, clever one to tell for the animal children at the party that evening. As he sat there, thinking, Uncle Wiggily picked up bits of seaweed, and laid them on the beach. Then he picked up white, round pebbles, about the size of raisins, and stuck them in the bunch of seaweed.

"It looks just like one of Nurse Jane's roly poly puddings," chuckled the bunny. "Only this is a pebble pudding, for it is full of hard pebbles. It wouldn't do to eat. This pebble pudding is like the sand pies we made yesterday."

Uncle Wiggily was sort of talking to himself about the pudding, and he was trying to think of a story, when, all of a sudden, up out of the ocean came two bad little Sea Urchins. They were mischievous chaps, almost as troublesome as the Sand Flipper. One of them cried:

"We heard what you said about a pudding! Give it to us! Give us that pudding before we tickle you with a sharp shell!"

"Why, my dear little Sea Urchins, I have no pudding!" said the bunny, speaking politely, and hoping the little scamps would do the same.

"What's that?" asked the second of the Sea Urchins, pointing to the bunch of seaweed on the beach.

"That," said Uncle Wiggily, "is a pebble pudding I made, just for fun, but it isn't good to eat. It is full of—"

"Just for fun we'll eat it!" cried the Sea Urchins. "You don't want us to, but we will!" And before the rabbit could stop them, those little tykes stuffed the seaweed pudding into their mouths, each taking half. But as soon as they chewed on the "pudding" they bit on the hard pebbles, breaking off some of their teeth.

"Oh, kadinkus, kadinkus!" howled the Sea Urchins, holding their paws to their aching jaws.

"Pebble pudding is no good!"

"I told you so!" laughed the bunny as the little scamps leaped back into the sea. But it served them right, I think. And if the dogwood tree doesn't bark at the pussy willows when they are swimming with the gold fish, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the stick sands.

Foul Play Feared as Hubby Goes Hunting

SAN PEDRO, Aug. 23.—If you do not think you are an important personage, forget to tell your wife you plan to be home many hours late. G. A. Morris, Lomita night watchman, discovered his importance when he recently failed to return home at the usual time. A search of his beat was of no avail. Fearing foul play, officials were asked to assist in the hunt. Morris did his own hunting; he drifted home late in the day, with two rabbits. He forgot to advise his family of his plans.

Tigers Outhit Portlanders But Unable to Secure Necessary Runs

By C. R. SIMMONS
For Southland News Service.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23.—Leaving all their reputed pep far, far behind, the Vernon Tigers suffered defeat at the hands of Portland at Washington park yesterday, 6 to 3. This evens up the series, two all, and today the clubs will fight for the advantage.

Inability to hit when nothing but a hit would bring about the needed tallies made things look bad for the Tigers. Three times the home club filled the bases with only one down, but they simply couldn't connect with men on bases. The Tigers touched Max Rachac for fifteen hits and were donated six walks, but the Bengals were just lucky to score three runs. Sixteen anxious runners were left stranded on the bases.

"Lefty" Thomas was picked to start for Vernon. It wasn't one of his days and three innings sent him to the showers, making room for Cecil Cruz, who pitched fairly good ball the rest of the distance.

Rachac presented the Bengals with a run in the third by walking Hannah with the bases loaded. Their other two came in the eighth when "Truck" Hannah smacked for a double. The Beavers made their hits mean something, scoring two runs in the first, third and seventh frames.

San Francisco accepted their first defeat in the series with Sacramento yesterday, losing to the Solons, 4 to 3. Marty Griffin pitched an excellent brand of ball for the Seals, but a break in the sixth gave the Senators the needed run.

Seattle won their third in a row from Oakland yesterday, by the decisive score of 8 to 0. Wheezer Doll twirled for the Indians holding the Oaks to four scattered hits.

The Angels broke their losing streak in Salt Lake yesterday, and overcoming an eight-run lead piled up by the Mormons in the first frame, the Angelenos defeated the Bees, 18 to 12.

BENNY LOOKS TO FIGHT NEXT FALL

Leaves Way Open for Return Battle With Pal Moore; Nobody In Sight

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Benny Leonard will now have all the time he needs to get into shape for Mickey Walker. At the same time he will defend his lightweight title later in the fall if anyone who impresses the fans as likely to give him a worthwhile battle bobs up.

Benny had a watchful eye on the Vicentini-Bernstein battle, and it is probable no one was more disappointed than he at the failure of the Chilean to prove sensational. Bernstein, as a challenger, does not excite the populace very much, and as things stand now there would not be much money in that fight. Still if a real first rate lightweight developed how would Leonard feel about meeting him at the limit of his class?

From Benny's present appearance he would have to do a lot of work to get down to the lightweight division and, having done so, would not be strong for a gruelling battle.

Tommy Back Soon

Leonard, however, through his bout in Cleveland with Pal Moran, has left the way open for a fight after he has finished with Walker. The battle ended with Moran still on his feet, and, while New Yorkers might not fall for the fight in great numbers, it figures to be good enough for out of town promoters to bid for it.

Tommy Gibbons will be here soon, and it is said that he and his manager, Eddie Kane, will listen very favorably to such propositions as (a) another bout with Carpentier; (b) a mixup with Gene Tunney; (c) a go with Jack Renault.

What Tommy most desires these days is the assurance of a good purse made by some promoter who gives promise of being able to pay at least 75 cents on the dollar.

PELKEY DEFEATED

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 23.—His face slashed and streaming blood, Ray Pelkey of Oakland, Cal., was last night acclaimed by fans as one of the gamest boxers who ever fought in a Portland ring. He was accorded an ovation, despite his ten-round defeat by James J. Delaney of St. Paul, Minn.

MILLER GETS VERDICT

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 23.—Although Joe Miller was awarded a decision over Teddy O'Hara last night, many observers declared the match a draw. Joe Roche got a decision over Bud Soules and George Spencer over Eddie Macey.

The Red Sox beat Cleveland 5 to 4 for their fifth straight victory.

TEXAN THREATENS TO OUTHIT RUTH

Minor League Record of 45 Homers Fall as Kraft Climbs Higher

By JOHN B. FOSTER
Special correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—If Clarence Kraft, first baseman of the Fort Worth club of the Texas league, succeeds in breaking the home run record of Babe Ruth, to wit, fifty-nine sockdolagers, is he likely to get $10,000? The Fort Worth Advertising club projected the plan of raising the dough with the breaking of the minor league home run record by Kraft on Sunday.

Ever since 1895 the home run record for minor leagues of the higher classification, like Fort Worth has, stood at forty-five, a total amassed by Perry Werden of Minneapolis. Now his title is gone, for Kraft made his forty-sixth homer Sunday. Kraft has been considered too slow for the major league, but he certainly has made his way into prominence in the Texas league, where, by the way, they play mighty good baseball.

Kraft started his home run march in 1923, when he drove out thirty-two, getting himself pretty thoroughly feared all over the circuit. He began to hit this year away back in spring practice. He was not hitting homers all the time, but he clipped the ball on the nose, which was all to the same purpose, and gave promise of doing a lot to help Fort Worth win the championship.

Over Any Fence

After the season started he got the home run habit again. It came all in a heap. He could bat them over any fence in the league. And they have some pretty distant fences out there.

Fort Worth is a progressive city. When somebody does something out there the citizens always take notice. So they are going about the undertaking of raising a purse full of shining ducats which will fall into Kraft's lap if he keeps going.

Even if he does not go Ruth's fifty-nine homers one or more better, Kraft won't go unrewarded for his efforts. The fans out Fort Worth way have a pleasant little habit of showering coins on a home run hitter, so every time Kraft drives one out he collects a little nest egg.

After Dallas' Scalp

Fort worth fans have more than a record in mind in wishing to pay Kraft that $10,000. They are redhot with yearning to beat Dallas, for they figure that Dallas inspired the divided season which upset Texas baseball again when Fort Worth seemed on the way to the championship.

It looks as if Memphis could not be shaken out of the Southern association lead this season, and if Memphis and Fort Worth are the winners in their respective leagues, they will play off the Dixie series. Fort Worth won it from Memphis in 1921, and it was largely due to the batting of Kraft and Coombs.

If Kraft gets his $10,000 he will be the first batter in history to collect such a sum directly from the fans. Ruth gets several times that per season—and, of course, he gets it indirectly from the fans—but the fans have not shoved him any $10,000 in a lump. Not yet.

TAGGING THE BASES

The Tigers clawed the Yanks 8 to 6 and cut the champions' lead to one game while Washington was idle.

The Giants made it three straight from the Cardinals. Hornsby's homer did not stem the tide.

Wilbur Cooper kept the Pirates in the race by blanking the Braves 3 to 0, allowing only three hits.

The Cubs beat Brooklyn 7 to 2, halting the Dodgers' winning streak. Arthur Weiss, Wichita Falls recruit, got four hits in his first game with the Cubs.

The Phillies beat the Reds in the eleventh, 5 to 3.

The Ahtletics scored seven runs in the first inning, enough to win from the Browns. The final score was 13 to 6.

Furnishes Artistic Draperies for Home

George J. Lyons, 1300 South Brand boulevard, artistic draperies, has just completed a very striking and unusual job of furnishing and hanging draperies for the home of Mrs. Frank Ayars, 281 Hill drive, Glendale. It was let to bidders among which several drapery concerns and furniture stores of both Glendale and Los Angeles entered. Mr. Lyons was awarded the job, which ran into considerable money.

The living room was furnished with drapes of striped antique velour and taupe blue rose, the library is brocaded copper color silk, the dining room in taupe and blue brocaded silk damask, the breakfast room in traversed casement curtains with cretonne overhangings, and in the five bedrooms the drapes were in fringed trimmings and ruffle curtains, colors to match the rooms. All drapes were hung on special antique gold poles and fixtures.

BOB SAGE GIVES KELLY TRIMMING

Detroit Attorney Pummels Hollywood Fighter at Will In Battle

Tom Kelly's main event ambitions were snubbed unmercifully last night at the Hollywood American Legion stadium when Bob Sage, Detroit's scrapping attorney, hit Tom with everything but the bucket and timekeeper's hammer. Sage dealt his hash off the left arm for practically the entire four-course affair, while his right got very little exercise.

Every round went to Sage by a wide margin. He pummeled Kelly almost at will, his lightning left doing considerable damage. In the third round Kelly was sent spinning across the ring after Sage had connected with his left, and in the second the Hollywood lad was all but out, after a barrage of lefts had descended upon him.

Gene Delmont of Memphis, substituting for Joe Schlocker, lost the decision to Al Grunan in the semi-windup. The decision failed to please all the fans, many thinking a draw verdict would have been better. Delmont was floored in the final stanza, but he finished strong. Frankie Osner and Ernie Ross dished up plenty of excitement for the fight bugs in their battle in the special spot, with Osner copping the verdict.

Young Bello and Georgie Sherman battled to a draw. Joe McDonald, substituting for Mike Solano, knocked out Jack Holt early in the first round. Marcel Dennis and Battling Ward split even. Mike Russo and Billy Blake clowned around the ring for four rounds and his honor called it a draw.

Glendale Elks Beat Santa Monica Bills

The bowling team representing the Glendale Elks took two of the three games played in the match with the Santa Monica Elks last night at the Recreation alleys. The beach Bills captured the first game by a margin of 22 pins, were smothered in the second and dropped the third by eight pins. Mitchell of the losers was high score man with 227.

Tonight the Red Feathers, who finished well up in the City Bowling league, will meet a picked team from Pasadena.

FIRPO TRIAL NOT TO DELAY BATTLE

Hearing Set for Sept. 20 to Decide If Luis Stays Here or Returns

By FAIR PLAY
Special correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—In setting the date of September 20 for a hearing on the charges preferred against Firpo by the New York Civic society, United States Commissioner Hitchcock displayed the wisdom of a Solomon. First, Luis will be permitted to meet Harry Wills as planned on September 11 in Jersey City. Second, it will be established whether the society of which Canon Chase is the principal actor was merely seeking to put a kibosh on the fight or is really interested in running Firpo out of the country.

Yet, again, if the wild bull has done anything wrong he stands a chance not only of being punished on September 20, but also being punished on September 11. Which ought to please the canon.

Mickey Walker is champion of the world only in the welterweight division. But as a practical joker he is the champion at all weights. Any fighter or trainer who shares Mickey's training quarters has got to stand for a lot of stuff wherein the other guys do all the laughing.

Upsets Dignity

The other night he invaded Ermino Spalla's room dressed as a woman. Spalla, who was studying a book of English grammar, arose with a questioning glance when Mickey let out a fearful shriek. Two of his sparring partners disguised as cops burst into the room and arrested Spalla on a charge of kidnaping.

He was haled to a barn down the road where a fake judge was seated in rural majesty. The judge sentenced Spalla to imprisonment for life and the Italian fighter was thinking of suicide when he was informed it was all a joke. Even so, it took Mickey two hours next morning to dissuade Ermino from sailing home to Italy.

Then there is a story of a fake dance gotten up in Rumson, N. J., the details of which can not be told because several hundred irate persons who were taken in might form a posse and hang someone.

WHITE SOX WILL PLAY ALL-STARS

Glendale Team Journeys to Goodyear Park Sunday; Navy Contest Off

For the first time since July 4, the Glendale White Sox will play away from home Sunday, when they will journey to Goodyear park and meet Jasper's Colored All-Stars. The game scheduled with the Navy champs, of San Diego, the team which cut short the White Sox' winning record, had to be cancelled, when Dan Kelly, Navy boss, wired Frank Kerwin, White Sox owner, that some of the players would be on duty Sunday.

Jasper has revamped his ball team, signed up some new players and picked out the best of his old team. He has imported one of the best hurlers in the National Colored league, a portsider by the name of Slowtime, who is said to have curves and speed galore. Slowtime will make his Southern California debut tomorrow against the White Sox.

Elmer Reiger will be on the mound for the White Sox. Joe Sullivan, if he is able to appear in uniform, will do the receiving. Sullivan was unable to play last Sunday on account of illness, and it is yet a question whether he will be on hand tomorrow. Jones will fill in if Sullivan is not present.

Winner-Take-All

The balance of the White Sox line-up will be intact, according to Carl Sawyer, White Sox boss. Shellenbach will play first base. Sawyer will look after second, Shields will cavort around third, Hirigoyen will be at short, and Young, Dorman and Orsatt will be in the outer gardens.

The game will be played on a winner-take-all basis. The White Sox met the All Stars twice in the Summer league schedule of play, and won both times, the first game being 6 to 1 and the second game was a shutout, the Sox piling up ten scores. The Goodyear park is located at Sixty-fourth and Central, Los Angeles. It is one of Los Angeles' latest semi-pro parks and the playing field is said to be exceptionally fast.

JACK BRITTON TO STAGE COMEBACK

Wants to Take Crown From Walker's Head and Put Back on Own Dome

By FAIR PLAY
Special correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Jack Britton, former welterweight champion, who has been threatening a comeback for these many many moons is at last going to begin a serious effort in this direction.

What Jack wants to do is to work his way up to a battle with Mickey Walker for the crown he once wore. He points to the fact that since he was unseated from the throne he has defeated Phil Kaplan, a rugged boy and Soldier Bartfield, a good old warhorse. Now on Monday night in Jersey, he is going to tackle Young Rapaport, who is a hard hitter and no setup.

If Britton gets away with this Jersey fighter he will work up to Walker through Philly Krug probably. Britton sees champions win and lose their titles after more or less strenuous bouts in which no great damage is done. No longer must the king get in and fight for his life over the 20 and 25 round route. This being so Britton thinks his cleverness will carry him again to the top.

It Looked Shady

When he was champion, he came out to Jersey and gave Mickey Walker a pretty nifty boxing lesson. But when the two met in New York for the title word went around to lay off Britton so far as betting was concerned. Just what basis there was for this tip is a mystery, but at any rate Walker took the decision from Jack.

Walker has grown in strength, hitting power and experience since then and all the chances are that if Britton gets into the ring with him again he will get the soundest licking he ever got in his life.

The ease with which Gene Tunney stowed away Joe Lohman out west the other night is additional evidence that Tunney is making rapid strides ahead. Lohman, of course, is no world beater but he has had a lot of experience and has never been regarded as a mark.

coast cities.

The report also shows only nine of the forty-nine cities in the United States in the million dollar class for July, showed a larger gain over the same month last year than did Glendale. These cities were Hammond, Ind.; Kenosha, Wis.; Fort Worth, Tex.; Duluth, Minn.; Gary, Ind.; Camden, N. J.; Columbus, Ohio; Berkeley, Cal., and Lakeland, Fla.

BUILDING COSTS TREND DOWNWARD

Economy In Construction Is Offsetting Stability of Wage Scales

tion in the pay of labor, feeling that it would be attended by an equally striking loss in efficiency.

Stabilize Prices

The building program already undertaken and known to be in prospect has tended toward the stabilization of material prices since they insure steady demand for brick, cement, iron and steel, lumber, sand, gravel, lime, paint, electrical equipment, furniture and hardware, with consequent steady employment of labor in those industries.

Another potent factor toward stabilization has been the lengthening of the construction season. This has assured better distribution of activity throughout the year, than ever before. Builders have learned to cope with adverse weather conditions and for the most types of construction it is now possible to build the year round in all parts of the United States. Formerly, workmen averaged a loss of 106.40 days a year in St. Paul on account of bad weather, 83.70 days in Denver, 74.60 in Boston, 67.5 in New York, 59.70 in St. Louis and 27.35 in Atlanta.

Satisfactory concrete work can now be carried on in cold weather, provided a few simple but necessary precautions are taken. These consist of suitably heating the materials in the concrete, placing the concrete while warm and protecting it by tarpaulins or salamanders. By spreading out building operations over the year, unemployment in many industries is avoided, prompt deliveries are possible and railroads are relieved of heavy shipments which formerly often came at a time when cars were needed to move coal and grain.

Lumber Standards

The system of American lumber standards, worked out by lumber manufacturers, distributers and consumers of forest products, has now been in effect since July 1 and the saving effected has already become apparent. Secretary of Commerce Hoover estimates that this saving will reach $250,000,000 a year. This system has eliminated many unnecessary and wasteful sizes and standardized grades, sizes and names.

The sound position of the lumber industry is shown by a late report of the mills of the Southern Pine association. These mills operated for the first six months of this year at 92 per cent of capacity and there is reason to expect that this rate will be continued or exceeded. Farmers of the country use about 15,000,000,000 board feet of lumber a year and in this connection the report says:

"If the weather, market and financial conditions do not, at a crucial moment, fail the farmer, it is anticipated that 1924 will pass out, leaving the farming districts in a more hopeful attitude than for several years. Hence, needed improvements will not go unmade on the farms and there should be an encouraging demand for lumber from these sources."

Eagle Rock Girl Is Bride of Glendalian

Dingle of Los Angeles, cousin of the bride.

Their sleeveless frocks were made of crepe de chine in varied pastel shades with ruffles and shirring. A touch of silver hemstitching and silver ribbon streamers fastened to the back of each frock was the only trimming. They carried arm bouquets of pastel-shaded sweetpeas, and wore silver bandeaux in their hair. Miss Bolt and Mrs. Jenkins wore blue orchid frocks; Mrs. Brown and Miss Dingle, pink orchid; Mrs. Cannon and Miss Black wore Nile green and Miss Farner and Miss Tupper, peach.

Matron of Honor

Mrs. John McNary of Eagle Rock, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a pink crepe de chine frock trimmed with shirring and a silver spray of hand-made flowers on the side of the skirt. She carried an arm bouquet of pastel shaded sweetpeas.

Geneva Johns and Helena Dingle, sister and cousin of the bride, were the flower girls. They wore lavender voile frocks made over pink silk and trimmed with lace. They carried arm bouquets of pink flowers.

Chester Bryant of Eagle Rock was the ring bearer. He wore a black satin suit with white ruffled blouse, and carried the wedding ring on a white satin pillow.

Thomas Rhodes of Hollywood, brother of the groom, was the best man. The ushers were Wilbur Johns and Stanley Johns of Eagle Rock, brothers of Miss Johns; E. L. Brumley, Herbert Brown, of Los Angeles; Edward Smith, of Eagle Rock; John T. Jenkins, Francis Bacon, of Glendale, and James D. Stewart, of Pasadena.

Miss Johns entered the church unaccompanied, inasmuch as her father was suddenly called east on account of the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. Harry Richey, of Vandegrift, Pa. She wore a beautiful bridal gown of white georgette crepe, combined with white satin and silk lace, with corsage of white ribbons and georgette flowers. A bandeau of pearls caught her veil in fan effect, and the soft billows of the silk net formed a court train to the wedding gown. The bridal bouquet was a shower arrangement of white roses and maiden hair fern.

From the church the bridal party, relatives and close friends motored to the Johns home for a reception. Mrs. Johns was assisted by Mrs. Reed McBurney and Mrs. Ervin Dingle of Los Angeles and Mrs. Allan Bryant of Eagle Rock.

Go to San Diego

Pink and white were the colors used in decoration. Flowers carrying out this color scheme were used in profusion. Favors consisted of tiny bon bon baskets fashioned after white roses with tiny golden wedding bells. The favors were the work of Mrs. John T. Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes left by motor for a honeymoon trip that will take them to San Diego and Coronado, where they will spend a few days at Hotel del Coronado. Upon their return they will reside at 643 Palm drive.

Ever since the announcement of their engagement, Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes have been honored by many pre-nuptial affairs, and the countless gifts and congratulatory messages they received bespeak the wide friendship they enjoy.

Was Teacher Here

Mrs. Rhodes graduated from the local high school, and since completing her course at the University of California, southern branch, has been a member of the faculty of the Broadway Grammar school. She plans to teach at the same school this fall. She is a member of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority, until recently Alpha Sigma sorority.

Mr. Rhodes is a graduate of the local high school, and connected with the Spreckels Brothers Commercial company, with offices in Los Angeles.

TELLS TAXPAYERS TO HOLD CHECKS

September 15 Installment of Income Tax Payment Should Wait Bill

Don't mail your September 15 installment payment on income tax until you receive your bill.

More than 100,000 income tax bills will be mailed between September 1 and 5.

Meanwhile 80,000 treasury checks drawn in favor of Southern California taxpayers to cover the 25 per cent refund on income taxes paid in full this year are being mailed.

This complicates things somewhat, Collector of Internal Revenue Rex B. Goodcell stated today, in advising taxpayers to sit pretty and wait for a bill.

Many Send Checks

Collector Goodcell said that already many checks are being received in payment of the installment due September 15, accompanied merely by letters of transmittal and in some instances remittances are forwarded without any explanation.

In view of the fact that the 25 per cent reduction is being applied as a credit to all outstanding balances and bills are being prepared showing the net amount of tax due less this credit, the collector said that taxpayers should await the receipt of bills before forwarding remittances.

Ask For Statement

It is impossible to credit the remittances now being received prior to the forwarding of bills, inasmuch as a large percentage of the approximate number of 100,000 bills are completed, Collector Goodcell explained.

If a taxpayer should fail to receive a bill by September 5, he should either forward his remittance or communicate with the collector's office, to determine the proper amount to be paid. If he is leaving the city and will not be at his residence between September 1 and 5, the collector said it would facilitate matters if the taxpayer would communicate with his office and obtain the correct amount of taxes due, and if possible a prepared bill to attach to the remittance.

Estimate Fruit Crop Value $125,000,000

Reports received by directors of the California Real Estate association at their quarterly meeting indicate that California fruit growers are enjoying higher prices this year than ever before, the increase being as great as 100 per cent in some cases. There is reason to believe, from the report rendered from the districts growing deciduous fruits, that the 1924 crop will bring close to $125,000,000. Reports from the railroads state that it will require 60,000 cars to ship this year's fruit crop to the eastern markets.

Orange Co. Realtors Elect New Officers

B. H. Sidman, president of the Anaheim realty board, was chosen as head of the Orange County Realty association, according to advices received here. He succeeds T. D. Talbert of Huntington Beach. On the Trail of Mrs. Married Woman

That, no doubt, accounts for her insistence upon merchandise that is advertised in The Glendale Evening News pages. By Mrs. Married Woman's kind permission, we have been extended the privilege of seeing her through the events of a day. May you profit by her experience.

Interesting, indeed, is the trail of Mrs. Married Woman. Her constant reference to The Glendale Evening News advertising assures the valuable companionship of Economy. Naturally, this makes the buying tour a real delight—one that is eagerly looked forward to by Mrs. Married Woman.

7:45 a. m.

Breakfast over, Mrs. Married Woman prepares for the events of the day. First—she thinks—I used the last of the Coffee we had for breakfast and I must stop first thing at the Japan Art and Tea Co., Glendale's real Coffee and Tea Store—for a couple pounds of their quality coffee, and while there, I will also get some delicious tea.

Want Reservoir Road Linked to Boulevard

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23.—Urging that the road on top of Weed reservoir, Hollywood, be made forty feet wide and joined with the Mulholland drive, a resolution was filed today with the public service commission. The resolution was passed by the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce, which stated that a series of roads had been projected to reach the lake from Hollywood and points also in the San Fernando valley.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION NO. 2557

A RESOLUTION OF THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GLENDALE DECLARING ITS INTENTION TO IMPROVE PORTIONS OF ROCK GLEN AVENUE, LINCOLN AVENUE AND MAPLE STREET, WITHIN SAID CITY.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GLENDALE:

SECTION 1. That the public interest and convenience require and it is the intention of the Council of the City of Glendale to order the following work and improvement to be made, to-wit:

First: That a portion of Rock Glen Avenue between the southerly extension of the easterly line of Lot 41, Eagle Dale, as per map recorded in Book 16 page, 185 of Maps, Records of Los Angeles County, California, and the northerly extension of the westerly line of Lot 9, said Eagle Dale; that Lincoln Avenue from Rock Glen Avenue to Maple Street; that Maple Street from the southerly extension of the westerly line of Lot 9, said Eagle Dale, to a line drawn two hundred forty-one and seventy-hundredths (241.70) feet easterly from and parallel to the westerly line and its southerly extension of said Lot 9, all as more particularly set forth on Plan No. 665, sheets 1, 2 and 3, shall be improved as follows, to-wit:

That said streets and portions of streets be graded, paved with a 3" oil macadam pavement and have constructed thereon cement curbs and wooden header, all except as otherwise shown on Plan No. 665, sheets 1, 2 and 3. Said work shall be done in accordance with plans and cross-sections therefor shown on said Plan No. 665, sheets 1, 2 and 3, and in accordance with Specifications No. 67 and No. 31.

Second: That a portion of Lincoln Avenue lying northerly of Rock Glen Avenue at and adjacent to its termination in Rock Glen Avenue; that a portion of Rock Glen Avenue at and adjacent to the termination of that portion of Lincoln Avenue lying northerly of Rock Glen Avenue in Rock Glen Avenue, all as more particularly set forth on Plan No. 665, sheet 1, shall be improved as follows, to-wit:

That said portions of streets be graded, paved with a 3" oil macadam pavement and have constructed thereon cement curbs and cement sidewalks, all except as otherwise shown on Plan No. 665, sheet 1. Said work shall be done in accordance with the plan therefor shown on said Plan No. 665, sheet 1, and in accordance with Specifications No. 67 and No. 31.

Third: That a 6" Class "B" cast iron water pipe be laid in Lincoln Avenue and across a portion of Rock Glen Avenue from the line fifteen (15) feet northerly from and parallel to the northerly line and its extensions of Rock Glen Avenue to a line twenty (20) feet northerly from and parallel with the southerly line and its extensions of Rock Glen Avenue; that a 4" Class "B" cast iron water pipe be laid across a portion of Lincoln Avenue between a line fifteen (15) feet northerly from and parallel with the northerly line and its extensions of Rock Glen Avenue and a line forty (40) feet northerly from and parallel with the northerly line and its extensions of Rock Glen Avenue from a line twenty (20) feet easterly from and parallel with the westerly line of Lincoln Avenue to a line seventeen (17) feet westerly from and parallel with the easterly line of Lincoln Avenue; that a 6" Class "B" cast iron water pipe be laid in Rock Glen Avenue from the northerly extension of the westerly line of Lot 9, aforesaid Eagle Dale, to a line drawn twenty (20) feet easterly from and parallel with the westerly line and its southerly extension of that portion of Lincoln Avenue lying northerly of Rock Glen Avenue to the southerly extension of the easterly line of Lot 41, aforesaid Eagle Dale; that a 6" Class "B" cast iron water pipe be laid in Lincoln Avenue and across portions of Rock Glen Avenue and Maple Street from a line twenty (20) feet northerly from and parallel with the southerly line and its extensions of Rock Glen Avenue to a line ten (10) feet northerly from and parallel with the southerly line of Maple Street; in Maple Street from a line twelve (12) feet easterly from and parallel with the westerly line and its southerly extension of Lincoln Avenue to the southerly extension of the westerly line of Lot 9, aforesaid Eagle Dale, together with tees, valves, reducers, elbows, fire hydrants, plugs and appurtenances, all as shown on Plan No. 665, sheets 1, 2 and 3. Said work shall be done in accordance with the plans and detailed drawings therefor shown on Plans No. 665, sheets 1, 2, and 3, No. 439, and No. 448, and in accordance with Specifications No. 42.

Fourth: That an 8" Vitrified pipe sewer be constructed in Rock Glen Avenue from the southerly extension of the westerly line of Lot 10, aforesaid Eagle Dale, to a point in the center line of Rock Glen Avenue one hundred ninety-eight (198) feet easterly, measured along said center line, from its intersection with a line drawn seven and six hundred twenty-five thousandths (7.625) feet easterly from and parallel with the northerly extension of the center line of that portion of Lincoln Avenue lying southerly of Rock Glen Avenue; in Lincoln Avenue and across a portion of Rock Glen Avenue from the center line of Rock Glen Avenue to a line drawn three hundred sixty-eight (368) feet southerly from and parallel with the center line of Rock Glen Avenue, together with manhole, junction chamber, flush tanks, frames and covers, house connections, plugs and appurtenances, all as shown on Plan No. 1466-S. Said Vitrified pipe sewer shall be constructed in accordance with the plan and profile therefor shown on said Plan No. 1466-S and in accordance with Specifications No. 38. Said manhole, junction chamber, flush tanks, frames and covers, house connections, plugs and appurtenances shall be constructed at the location and elevation shown on said Plan No. 1466-S and in accordance with detailed drawings therefor shown on Plan No. 394, sheets 1, 2, 4 and 8. Los Angeles Pastor In Glendale Pulpit

One of the outstanding ministers of his denomination on the Pacific coast, Rev. Herbert Booth Smith, D.D., will occupy the pulpit of the Glendale Presbyterian church tomorrow, at both the morning and evening services. Dr. Smith is pastor of the largest church, in point of membership, in the Los Angeles Presbytery, namely, the Immanuel Presbyterian church. He is a forceful speaker, and the local congregation and their friends are anticipating hearing him with pleasure.

In the morning his subject will be "Four Steps in Christian Experience." His evening topic will be "Shall We Recognize Our Loved Ones in Heaven?" The public is invited.

La Follette Friends To Boost Candidacy

SUNLAND, Aug. 23.—A meeting will be held tonight at the Sunland schoolhouse to perfect the organization of a "La Follette-for-President" club. Much enthusiasm for this candidate was evinced at a recent meeting held in Monte Vista park, at which his candidacy was indorsed.

WINS SUPPORT IN RACE FOR BENCH

Judge Harry A. Hollzer Is Backed by Friends In Primary Election

Judge Harry A. Hollzer, who is a candidate to succeed himself as judge of the Superior court, at the primaries August 26, is widely known both in judicial and legal circles, and that he has the confidence and esteem of his confreres is attested by the many personal endorsements given him in his campaign by Supreme court jurists, federal and superior court judges, as well as practicing attorneys.

Judge H. A. Hollzer

In the recent poll taken by the Los Angeles Bar association Judge Hollzer received 536 votes out of a total of 706 cast for the short term candidates for the Superior court bench, this being nearly four times the combined vote given his two opponents.

Supporters of Judge Hollzer, in seeking a decisive vote for him at the primaries, hold that he is the logical candidate to succeed himself, and that his retention in the office to which he was appointed recently by Governor Richardson will in no ways conflict with any one who is a candidate for the regular term.

Support Candidates

Prominent among Judge Hollzer's supporters are a number of Glendale residents, among these being the following:

Mrs. E. V. Bacon, Miss Eva Daniels, A. T. Cowan, Charles L. Chandler, Daniel N. Campbell, Col. James Everington, W. E. Evans, Michael Gannon, Mrs. Harry Greenwalt, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Harris, W. E. Hewitt, C. E. Kimlin, George B. Karr, Mrs. E. W. Kinney, A. H. Montgomery, Mrs. E. B. Moore, Alexander Mitchell, George U. Moyse, Mrs. Charles E. Hutchinson, Dr. Jessie A. Russell, Ed Radke, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rudel, Spencer Robinson, James M. Rhoades, D. Stephenson, Bert Woodard, Richardson D. White, Thomas D. Watson and Mrs. Frank C. Weller.

Judge Hollzer was graduated from the University of California in 1902, being admitted to the bar the same year. At the time of his appointment to the Superior court bench he was engaged in the practice of law in Los Angeles and was a trustee of the Los Angeles Bar association.

Fearless and Honest

He is a prominent Mason, a member of the Scottish Rite, a Shriner and an Elk. He also is a member of the City club, the Municipal league, the Chamber of Commerce and other organizations interested in the advancement of civic and philanthropic activities.

As a jurist Judge Hollzer is held to be particularly fitted to serve on the bench, having a clear sense of justice, a keen insight into matters of law and a fearless honesty.

Co-operation Keynote Of Round-Table Meet

SUNLAND, Aug. 23.—The keynote at the last meeting of the Tujunga-Sunland round table, as at previous meetings, was co-operation and unity of purpose among the three communities represented—Tujunga, Sunland and Valley Center. W. E. Smith of Sunland made an eloquent plea for harmony in perfecting plans for community betterment.

The matter of repairing neglected pavement at street intersections was taken up, and a survey will be made of the corners for the purpose of recommending action to the supervisors. H. N. Fowler of Verdugo City addressed the meeting, and spoke of the necessity of widening and improving Honolulu avenue.

C. C. Campbell, president of the Sunland Chamber of Commerce, issued and had accepted an invitation to the round table to be the guests of the Sunland chamber at the next meeting, in September.

Annette Kellerman to Be Festival Feature

TUJUNGA, Aug. 23.—Annette Kellerman, nationally famous swimmer and exponent of health and beauty culture, will headline a vaudeville and musical program that will be given Sunday night, August 31, as part of the fourth annual Moon Festival of the Tujungans, which opens August 29 and closes Labor Day. Miss Kellerman has consented to appear as a special favor to Post 250, American Legion, which is sponsoring the festival this year. Several other high-class performers, some familiar to radio fans, will appear on the program, which will be given in the outdoor pavilion at the Garden of the Moon park.

John Steven McGroarty has promised to officiate at the coronation ball, when the winner of the popularity contest will be crowned "Queen of the Verdugos" and present her with the diamond ring given by the Legion.

FIGURES REVEAL GROWTH OF CITY

Glendale Ranks as Prodigy Of West; Statistics Shatter Records

lished by the supervisors a year ago. This is one of the most phenomenal increases in assessed valuation ever recorded by a municipality, according to H. S. Saulsberry, city comptroller. It is this tremendous increase that has enabled the city to hold the tax rate to $1.11 for the present fiscal year, in spite of the $1,600,000 sewer bonds voted recently, and for which a levy of 18 cents is required, the tax rate last year being $1.10.

Building Figures

Exhibit B—BUILDING PERMITS. Last year Glendale's building totaled $10,047,601, a record that was hailed as miraculous clear across the United States. This year the figure already stands at $6,854,874, and it is almost a certainty that the total will reach $12,000,000 or better before 1924 takes the air. The city has, moreover, already enjoyed million-dollar building months three times this year: in January, with $1,029,533; in June, with $1,000,785; and in July, with $1,126,521; while the prospects are excellent for another million-dollar month in August, according to H. C. Vandewater, building superintendent.

Exhibit C—ELECTRIC METERS. On July 1 there were 13,290 electric meters in service within the city limits, as compared with 10,469 meters a year ago and 6090 on July 1, 1921. It is by multiplying the number of electric meters by four that a very accurate and conservative population estimate is obtained. This would give Glendale a population of 53,160 on July 1 of this year. Many experts claim that four and one-half is the right ratio, and this would give Glendale a population of 59,805 on that date. These figures are in general use throughout the United States, and can be relied on, according to Peter Diederich, superintendent of plant and production for the city of Glendale.

Telephone Records

Exhibit D—TELEPHONE INSTALLATIONS. The increase in this department is startling, being no less than 300 per cent since January 1, 1920, when there were 2247 phones, to July 1, 1924, when the number had leaped to 6314. And in the month and a half from the latter date to the middle of the present month, the number had made a further skyrocket to 6680. So great has been the increased business of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company in this city that $90,000 is now being expended in a three-story addition to the building at 125 South Brand boulevard. Over 1500 orders for telephones which have been waiting will receive attention when this addition is completed, according to Fred Deal, manager.

Exhibit E—POSTOFFICE BUSINESS. In the past two years local postal receipts have increased 73.7 per cent, well warranting an investment of approximately $100,000 in the beautiful new building on East Broadway near Jackson street. In 1921, postal receipts amounted to $106,923.26, exclusive of money order fees, according to D. Ripley Jackson, postmaster. The total for 1923 was $185,686.69, and present indications are that the 1924 total will exceed $200,000.

It is concrete exhibits of ever-increasing prosperity and development such as the above that show sceptics, pessimists and chronic knockers that Glendale is striding onward and upward, in spite of them all, unequaled by any city of similar size in the United States.

I. W. W. SUES FOR $24,000 DAMAGES

Los Angeles City and Police Made Defendants In Three Civil Suits

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23.—Damages aggregating near $24,000 demanded in three civil suits on file today in superior court by members of the Industrial Workers of the World against the City of Los Angeles, members of the city police department who are alleged to have brutally assaulted Andrew Lorier, prisoner in the city jail, and against David Starr, who swore to a complaint against a number of the I. W. W.

Lorier accuses George S. Fisher and four other policemen of hitting and kicking him while he was held in a cell. He demands $10,000 damages. Bernard Jelovich asks damages of $7200 from Starr because the latter was complaining witness on a warrant charging him with violation of the Busick injunction prohibiting membership in the I. W. W.

Score City Jail

He alleges he was held for six days in the city jail, "foul, filthy, overcrowded and unfit for human habitation." The city is made defendant in an action for $6500 damages as the result of three raids on the I. W. W. headquarters at San Pedro March 17, June 14 and August 9.

All of the complaints were filed by R. W. Henderson, blind I. W. W. attorney who was one of the most active proponents of the bill in the last session of the legislature for the repeal of the criminal syndicalism law.
